SAMMIES ARE ANXIOUS TO ENTER FIGHT

Not Slightest Doubt But That Enemy Will Be Defeated

AMERICANS SPEEDING UP THEIR WORK IN FRANCE

Patrol Goes Over Top In Broad Daylight On Inspection Trip

(Associated Press Telegram)
With the American Army in France, March 28.—While there is no false optimism regarding events in northern France in the American expeditionary force, all ranks, although realizing that the situation is tense, are confident that allied arms eventually will be victorious. Every man is intensely interested in the outcome. Newspapers continuing the official statements and descriptions from newspaper correspondents are eagerly read by all the Americans, from generals to privates and from the base ports to the front line trenches.

Not the slightest doubt is expressed but that the British and French will not only halt the enemy, but defeat him.

All the American troops are anxious to get into the fight and are envious of the role played by the handful of American railroad engineers who are believed to have been caught in the German advance. As the days have gone on and it appeared that the men would not get a chance to participate directly in the fighting, there have been some "growls," but the men in the ranks are confident that whatever is being done by the commanders is for the best.

Some of the Americans far back of the lines have insisted that they heard the rumble of the guns in the zone of fighting but this is not probable owing to the distance of the American sector from the battle front. This is taken as an indication of the anxiety of the American troops to get into action against the Germans.

To the American troops training in northern France, the great battle in Picardy has had the effect of making them speed up their work for they feel that eventualities might make it necessary for them to take part in the fighting.

Two officers and four men went over the top today in broad daylight, a feat seldom accomplished. Although the sun was shining and the sky was clear, the Americans decided not to defer any longer their determination to learn definitely whether the Germans were present in great numbers in an enemy firing trench. When dawn came there were faint clouds showing back of the enemy's lines and the Americans delayed for a time, hoping for rain and fog but when the clouds disappeared the two officers and the four men decided to make the daylight venture although they would be under the eyes of a watchful enemy and in a place where even pistol bullets might find their mark.

Machine guns were posted and the Americans, with grenades swinging at their waists and with rifles in hand, clamored up from the first step and out over the parapet. They slid head first into the nearest shell hole and the journey was on.

Moving from shell hole to shell hole, taking advantage of the slightest rise in the terrain, the patrol proceeded. In the trenches behind them their comrades stood with fingers on their rifles ready to fire the instant any Germans might show themselves. (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5.)

AMERICANS ON ITALIAN FRONT

(Associated Press Telegram)
Italian Army Headquarters, Thursday, March 28.—Ambassador Page has arrived here from Rome and with General Swift and other members of the American military mission, visited General Diaz at headquarters, where they were entertained at luncheon by the Italian commander and his staff.

Former representative Lens of Ohio and Major Edward Toner, is understood to be representing the governor of Indiana.

James Davis, of Pittsburgh, chairman of the American Moose war relief, has also arrived and he and Mr. Lens and Major Toner were conducted along the Piave and mountain fronts at a time when a spirited canoodling was proceeding.

FOSTORIA, O., VISITED BY EXPENSIVE CONFLAGRATION

(Associated Press Telegram)
Fostoria, O., March 29.—Fire early today destroyed the three-story brick Cadwallader block and damaged the Botts block, adjoining Kiebel and Wilson drygoods merchants, occupied the Cadwallader block. Their $30,000 store is a total loss. The loss on the Cadwallader block is $75,000. Estimated damage to the Botts block and losses suffered by Vernier and Orwig, druggists, the Logan Gas company, and Woolworth five and ten cent store is $35,000.

ATTEMPT TO RESUME THE CAR SERVICE

Made at Kansas City Where Great Strike is Now In Progress

SALOONS CLOSED BY ORDER OF POLICE COMMISSIONER

Food Problem Complicated By Strike of Butchers and Bakers

(Associated Press Telegram)
Kansas City, March 29.—The third day of the general sympathetic strike called to aid striking laundry employees, began with no indication of an early settlement and with union leaders devoting their energies to increasing the number of strikers to beyond the estimates of 20,000 which they made last night. Backed by the promise of the police to furnish protection, the Kansas City Railway company announced that an attempt would be made today to resume street car service here and in Kansas City, Kas. The car men asserted that violence committed and threatened made it unsafe to operate. At a mass meeting last night attended by 1600 of the car men, they endorsed the general strike.

All saloons still were closed this morning under orders from the police commissioner at the request of Adjutant General Harvey Clark, who came here at the direction of Governor Frederick D. Gardner to aid in preserving order. For the thousands who daily depend upon restaurants which are closed, the problem of obtaining food was further complicated by the strike of union bakers and union meat-cutters in retail butchers. All motion picture theaters also were closed by the strike of machine operators.

The first and second battalions of the Seventh regiment, Missouri National Guard, are quartered in convention hall in the heart of the city, and the Third battalion is being held in reserve at its armory.

TWO MORE FLIERS KILLED IN TEXAS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Fort Worth, Texas, March 29.—F. J. Dwyer and J. Scott Rowan, both members of the Royal Flying Corps were killed in aviation accidents today.

Rowan came here from Scotland. Dwyer's nearest kin, E. O. Bowen, lives in Montreal.

MAJ. GEN. GLENN IS BACK FROM FRANCE

(Associated Press Telegram)
An Atlantic Port, March 29.—Major General Edwin F. Glenn, U. S. A. commander at Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Ohio, who has been at the front in France, arrived here today on an American ship.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Ohio, March 29.—Major General Glenn left Camp Sherman about two months ago, and while it was known among officers at division headquarters that he was going to France, the announcement was simply that he had gone to Washington. He was accompanied by Captain Nelson Talbot, aide and by Captain Rhoades, who had acted as assistant to Major Ward Dabney, the army officer in charge of construction of the big cantonment here.

Brigadier General Perkins, ranking officer of the four brigadier generals here, assumed command of the camp. He left last week for New York, assuming his old rank of colonel, to become chief of military affairs for the eastern department at Governor's Island, N. Y. Brigadier General Willard A. Holbrook, since has been in charge at Camp Sherman.

General Glenn is expected to stop in Washington before returning to Camp Sherman. He probably will be here the first of the week, unless detained longer than expected at Washington.

TO SHOW ALLIES U. S. STAND ON WAR

New York, March 29.—To make known to British and French labor the position of labor in the United States with regard to the war, a delegation of nine American labor leaders, with credentials of the American Federation of Labor, will sail shortly for England and France.

TOMMIES FIGHT WITHOUT REST TO STEM HUN ADVANCE

British Tommies in the trenches at St. Quentin. Here are some of the Tommy heroes who met the Germans' first blow at St. Quentin and fought for long hours without rest to make the Germans pay dearly for their advances. The heroism of these British in resisting the furious hammering of troops that greatly outnumbered them is beyond all praise. The British had only recently relieved the French in the St. Quentin sector and had scarcely time to consolidate their positions before the Hun drive was launched.

AMERICAN KILLED IN AIR FIGHT ON FRENCH FRONT

(Associated Press Telegram)
Paris, March 29.—Phelps Collins of Detroit, Mich., a member of the Lafayette flying corps, was killed in an air-fight on the French front on March 13, it was announced today.

While on patrol duty Collins was attacked by a number of German machines. He drove one adversary down and then was himself hit, falling inside the German lines.

Collins had been at the front for about five months and had shot down two German machines. He was considered one of the best aviators.

Phelps Collins was one of the 24 Americans who were commissioned in the aviation reserves of the American army in France, on recommendation of General Pershing last December. He was given the rank of captain.

ALIENS DISCHARGED FROM THE ORCHESTRA

(Associated Press Telegram)
Toledo, March 29.—Three musicians, placed under $1000 bonds each by the department of justice here yesterday as dangerous aliens, were today discharged from the orchestra of the moving picture theatre in which they "ragged" the music of the "Star Spangled Banner" as the American flag and a picture of Abraham Lincoln were shown. They are Henry Weisberger, Hungarian and Alfred Buhner and Otto Fechner, Germans.

Fechner told District Attorney E. S. Wertz of Cleveland that he deserted from the German army ten years ago. "I am a man without a country," he said, in court.

RAINBOW DIVISION IN THE TRENCHES

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, March 29.—The old Fourth regiment, Ohio National Guard, now the 166th infantry, and a part of the Rainbow division in France, has been in the trenches on the western front since February 23, according to Captain Abe Newlove of Marysville, who arrived from France today after having been discharged for physical disability.

Captain Newlove stated that the Ohio troops are under artillery fire every day. He stated that the artillery fire begins in the afternoon and it quite heavy at night. In the morning, he said, there is comparative quiet.

The "folks back-home" know more about what is going on in the war than the boys at the front. Captain Newlove said. The Ohio troops get most of their war news from home newspapers sent to them.

FIVE STANDARD SHIPS LAUNCHED

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, March 29.—Five standard ships were launched in British shipyards Wednesday. The Central News says it understands. Four of the vessels left the ways at the Harland & Wolff yards at Belfast.

WITHDRAWAL WAS MADE ACCORDING TO PRE-ARRANGED PLANS.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 29.—The British withdrawal before the German advance was made according to pre-arranged plans and is "all over now," Major General J. Franklin Bell today told the senate military committee. He said the allies have known of the German preparations for the present drive soon after they were begun and made active preparations to face it.

General Bell recently returned from the battle front.

PERSHING TENDERS ALL THE RESOURCES OF AMERICAN ARMY

(Associated Press Telegram)
Paris, March 29.—General Pershing called on General Foch at headquarters yesterday according to L'Information and placed at his disposal the whole resources of the American army for employment in battle now in progress.

There have been several reports recently that General Foch, one of the most brilliant strategists of the day, who was largely responsible for the French victory in the battle of the Marne, would be placed in supreme command on the western front.

"I come," L'Information quotes General Pershing as saying, "to say to you that the American people would hold it a great honor for our troops were they engaged in the present battle. I ask it of you, in my name and in that of the American people."

"There is at this moment no other question than that of fighting. Infantry, artillery, aviation—all that we have—are yours to dispose of as you will. Others are coming which are as numerous as will be necessary. I have to say to you that the American people will be proud to be engaged in the greatest battle in history."

General Foch placed General Pershing's proffer before the council at the front. L'Information says. The council includes Premier Clemenceau, Commander in Chief Petain and Louis Loucheur, minister of Munitions.

THE LONG RANGE BOMBARDMENT OF PARIS RESUMED

(Associated Press Telegram)
Paris, March 29.—The long-range bombardment of Paris was resumed shortly after 3 o'clock this afternoon.

TEN MEXICANS KILLED.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Marfa, Tex., March 29.—Ten Mexicans and Private Theodore K. Albert, an American cavalryman, were killed yesterday in a fight between U. S. cavalry and Mexican bandits near Pilares, Mexico, southwest of Valentine, Texas, according to official advices received here today. The fight followed a pursuit after the Mexicans who raided the Nevill ranch, killing Glenn Nevill.

SENATE FAVORS AMENDMENT.

Washington, March 29.—Preliminary to a final vote today the senate apparently favored an amendment to the draft bill which would provide for compulsory military training of youths between 15 and 21 years of age by defeating 35 to 32 a motion by Senator Jones of Washington to table it.

WILL TENDER THE SELECTS FAREWELL MEETING TOMORROW

A patriotic farewell meeting will be held Saturday at 12 o'clock on the south steps of the courthouse in honor of the boys from both the city and county who are leaving for Camp Sherman tomorrow. The exercises will be in charge of A. S. Mitchell, chairman of the local council of National Defense and a fitting program has been arranged. The meeting is being held under the auspices of the war relief committee.

Chaplain J. E. Holloway will deliver the invocation and the music will be under the supervision of Prof. C. W. Kopp and Ralph Mitchell.

The fife and drum corps, the Rotary Club, the Old Guards and all patriotic organizations of both the city and county are urged to be present.

The program will start promptly at 12 o'clock as the boys leave for camp at 12:55 o'clock.

LESS CONFUSION BY TURNING BACK CLOCKS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Pittsburg, March 29.—Suggestions that all persons advance the hands of their clocks and watches one hour before retiring, Saturday night, as the best means of meeting the change in time to be made effective by the daylight saving act, Sunday morning at 2 o'clock, was made today in a statement by Robert Garland, chairman of the national committee on daylight saving of the chamber of commerce of the United States. There will be less confusion, Mr. Garland declares, and the average person will awake Sunday morning unimpaired of the change in time.

95,000 MEN MOVING TO CANTONMENTS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 29.—With the exception of a few districts in the large eastern cities, where delays have been permitted because of religious ceremonies at Easter-time, the mobilization of 95,000 men comprising the last increment of the first draft and 15,000 men of the second, began to get under way today. The first 70,000 whites and 25,000 negroes began moving to the national cantonments.

The first men of the second draft are called, despite the fact that Congress has not yet amended the law to change the basis of apportionment, as Provost Marshal General Crowder has asked. But it is practically certain that no more will be called until the question is settled. The 95,000 now called, it is understood, are needed at once to fill up the place of men transferred from other divisions to make up deficiencies.

SELECTS LEAVE FOR CAMP SHERMAN TODAY

Toledo, March 29.—"Be brave." A grey haired woman said this to her son this morning. He was one of 87 selected men departing for Camp Sherman.

For the first time no tears were shed and no women fainted as a soldiers' train pulled out. For the first time, also every selected man and alternate called, was on hand. The German drive has stimulated recruiting and drafted men are importuning the boards to send them to the camps.

BATTLE ALONG WESTERN FRONT VIRTUALLY LOST FOR THE KAISER'S ARMY

FIGHT STILL RAGES OVER FRONT OF MORE THAN 70 MILES WHERE ALLIES HAVE SUCCESSFULLY HELD OFF GERMANS AND FORMER NOW READY FOR DEFENSIVE

Predict German Attack In Mont Didier Region Will Prove a Failure—Theory That Paris Was Not the Main Objective of the German Offensive But Enemy Plan Was to Break Connection Between French and British Armies, Which Has Failed—French Reserve Army Has Come Into Position

(Associated Press Telegram)

With the French Army in France, Thursday, March 28.—The great German effort appears to have exhausted itself. At many places along the front of attack the enemy is being driven back and at others the French and British are offering grim resistance. Infantry fighting has begun to give place to artillery battles and in the next few days the guns may be expected to speak loudly. In this respect the British and French have the advantage inasmuch as the Germans have been unable to drag much artillery with them. They are engaged in establishing themselves in the positions to which they have advanced, but not have time thoroughly to organize their defenses.

The main portion of today's fighting was around the northern sector of the battlefield, where both the French and the British had a successful day.

(Associated Press Telegram)

Paris, March 29.—The great battle is now raging over a front of more than seventy miles. This extension of the line has increased the number of German reserves engaged. Although this far no decisive step has been obtained anywhere. There is increased confidence here.

The impression in semi-official circles is that the allies have not only held off the Germans but now are no longer compelled to permit the enemy by his maneuvers to select the course which the battle shall take.

The general feeling is that for the moment the battle is virtually lost, that for the allies the battle is about to begin.

The operations thus far are accepted as confirming the theory that Paris was not the main objective of the German offensive, but that the plan of the enemy was to break the connection between French and British armies, in which he has failed. His main direct attack was westward toward the sea. The Germans seek Amiens because this town is an important railway center of communication with England. The loss of Amiens would be inconvenient, but not vital.

"The situation is improving and improving rapidly. The German attacks are meeting with a stubborn defense. They must have Amiens cut off the British. They must reach the sea to attempt an enveloping movement. Nothing will be spared to defend Amiens to the last."

The eighth day of the battle brought a change in the weather, if conditions at the front are the same as in Paris. The wind shifted from the northwest to the southwest, which will prevent the Germans from using gas. Rain is falling which will make it difficult for the Germans to bring up their artillery over the ground they have acquired.

It may now be said that the French armies in reserve have come into position and the numerical superiority which the Germans enjoyed in their first rush is decreasing.

FRENCH HELD VILLAGES.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Paris, March 29.—Violent fighting continued last evening and last night in the region of Mont Didier, the war office announced today.

In spite of German counter-attacks the French held on to the villages which they took yesterday in this region.

Monchel was taken by French troops. North of Mont Didier, French and British troops held up the German thrust. The German losses have been extremely heavy.

The statement follows: "The battle was continued violently yesterday evening and part of the night in the region of Mont Didier. Notwithstanding repeated counter-attacks the enemy was not able to eject the French from the villages which they captured yesterday. The French troops, following up their success, took possession of Monchel after valiant fighting."

In front of Plessier-de-Roye there has been violent fighting. All the German attacks against this village broke before the indomitable resistance of the French troops.

Statements obtained from prisoners confirm reports that the French suffered by the Germans, without bringing them success, are extremely heavy. The number of corpses found in the vicinity of Mont Didier and near Plessier de Roye also confirm this statement.

To the north of Mont Didier Franco-British troops continue victoriously to hold the Germans on the line along the Avre river and in front of Neuville-Sire-Bernard, Mezieres, Marolles and Hamont.

Certain columns of German infantry and convoys reported on the road between Laon and La Fere, were brought under the fire of our long range artillery and dispersed.

There has been notable artillery activity along the remainder of the front.

Reports of yesterday's operations are encouraging in two particulars, reinforcing the calm confidence, which is felt here. First was the plainly marked check with which the Germans met in their attempt to extend the battle north of Arras. The second feature is the effective and increasing reaction on the part of the allies, resulting in important successes, particularly in the region of Mont Didier. The more cheerful feeling was nowhere more evident than in the lobby of the chamber of deputies.

Premier Clemenceau looked there for a few minutes between two trips to the front.

"I slept last night and slept well," said the premier. "I had not done that for some time."

Louis Loucheur, minister of munitions who also came back from the front, spoke of the situation in the most hopeful way.

The Germans are employing a method of attack, the most conspicuous feature of which is smoke cloud, camouflage, under cover of which successive waves of attacking forces advance in echelon. After a short and intense artillery preparation the first wave, armed with automatic rifles, machine guns, and new tanks mounted on low carriages for short range fire is sent forward, firing at a range of 2,000 yards. It is ordered to fire on the reserves, regardless of the opposing forces right at hand, which the succeeding waves must account for. The task of the leading troops is to increase the advantage of surprise by preventing paralyzing counter-attacks on the part of the reserves.

The result of these tactics usually is that the first wave is almost entirely wiped out. The second wave then passes ahead.

GERMANS HELD 57 MILES FROM PARIS.

(Compiled from A. P. Dispatches)
The southwestern thrust of the German wedge into the allied lines has been stopped short at Mont Didier, the enemy seems definitely held here, 57 miles from Paris, by the enclosure of the town within a pocket formed by a series of villages, recently captured and held by French troops. Despite continuous counter-attacks, last night the Germans were not able to dislodge Petain's men from these hamlets on the hills about the town.

Between Mont Didier and the Somme the Germans seem to have gained some ground since yesterday in their westward push toward Amiens, the great allied supply base, but Paris declares the Anglo-French forces are holding the enemy firmly along a well defined line which at no point is less than 12 miles from their objective.

The German purpose, now that the thrust to the southwest has been checked, apparently is to close in within the angle formed by the rivers Avre and Somme, with its point at Amiens. It is in this triangle, therefore that further fighting of the most intensive nature is to be looked for in the immediate future.

The Germans continue to sacrifice their men recklessly in their desperate attempts to break the Anglo-French barrier, as the reports from both the French and the British war offices testify.

North of the Somme the British front has not only been stiffly maintained but has been advanced in places. Today's statement from the London war office emphasizes the success of the British in tolling the German effort to embarrass the allied defense by establishing a movable line in the Arras region through a great assault. The German reserves, thrown in after the frustration of the outpace line, were crumpled up in the battle lines, were smashed by the fire of Field Marshal Haig's artillery and machine guns and thrown back with great losses.

General Pershing has placed the

ASK EXECUTIVE CLEMENCY FOR THOS. J. MOONEY

(Associated Press Telegram) Sacramento, Cal., March 25.—President Wilson has telegraphed Governor Stephens of California, asking executive clemency for Thomas J. Mooney, now under death sentence, it became known here today. Mooney was convicted in connection with a bomb-explosion in San Francisco in a preparedness parade July 22, 1916, which caused the death of 10 persons and injured 40 others.

NEITHER AFFIRMS OR DENIES TELEGRAM SENT
Washington, March 25.—The only comment of White House officials today on President Wilson's telegram to Governor Stephens asking him to extend executive clemency in the Mooney case, was that they would neither affirm or deny such a telegram had been sent.

Further than that they absolutely refused to discuss it. The president's action, which has few precedents in American judicial history, comes as the climax of much effort by agencies of the federal government to have the conviction of Mooney reversed and to get for him a new trial.

When President Wilson sent his labor mediation commission west several months ago to look into numerous labor disturbances which were threatening the government's war production program, it was specially charged to look into the Mooney case and make a report. The commission reported conclusions that the Mooney case had become so involved with the issues of the bitter contest between capital and labor in San Francisco that he should have a new trial.

About the same time the Boishe-viki disturbances reached their height in Russia and all the influence of the United States was being exerted to preserve the new democracy, the Russian agitators, of the Lenin and the Trotsky type, opposing the efforts of the United States, were using the Mooney case as one of their chief arguments to make the Russian people believe that the pleadings of the United States for the cause of democracy were insincere. They declared in their public speeches that the Mooney case was an example of autocratic government in this country and the commission reported to the president that the effects of the case had become world-wide among the workers.

"The feeling of disquietude aroused by the case must be heeded," the commission reported to the president, "for if unchecked it impairs the faith that our democracy protects the lowest and even the unworthy against false accusations. War is fought with moral as well as material resources."

It is well-known that practically all the prominent labor leaders have been asking the president to intervene for the relief of Mooney, and many of the administration's advisers have been favoring such a step. After receiving the report of the commission, the president wrote Governor Stephens urging a new trial. The highest court of California recently refused it.

As the whole matter was one of judicial process within the state of California and over which the federal government had no control, only one course remained, and that was to appeal to Governor Stephens to grant executive clemency.

entire resources of the American army in France at the disposal of the French staff, for use in the world battle now in progress, according to reports from Paris. This offer, the advice state, was made to General Foch, the great military strategist and chief of the war ministry staff, who has been reported as likely to be placed in supreme command of all the armies on the western front.

BRITISH ARE STUBBORNLY BATTLING AGAINST INVADERS
(Associated Press Telegram) British Army Headquarters in France, March 25.—The Germans were able to penetrate Marcellave twelve miles east of Amiens, in the region south of the Somme, only by means of heavy massed attacks late yesterday, which gradually forced the British back.

It was in this district, south of the Somme that the invaders continued to make their greatest efforts. The British here are battling stubbornly and brilliantly against an advance which, it must be admitted has been steady.

The conflict in this region has been most sanguinary and at latest reports it was continuing along a line represented roughly by Hamel, Warfusse, Abancourt and Marcellave. This point seemed to mark the extreme advance against the British. The German attack in this region was made from Cerisy on the Somme supported by artillery from across the river.

Yesterday's assaults of the extreme northern and southern parts of the battlefield were in continuance of the Germans' scheme to swing their lines out so as to broaden the salient which they have driven in and thereby possibly enable them to make an attempt to envelop Amiens. The fighting east of Arras yesterday was of a most desperate nature, especially in the region of Telegraph Hill, southeast of the city. Here the masses of troops struggled at close quarters throughout the day, the British holding grimly to the defenses which guard the already war-shocked town.

Nenville-Vitasse, southeast of Telegraph Hill, was occupied by the Germans. They also succeeded in getting a hold on Orange Hill, further north. From these positions they were continuing their offensive. The resistance of the British yesterday south of Arras along the line of the Arras-Albert road was most gallant. Here the Germans advanced time after time for heavy attacks in the region of Ablainzeville, but in every instance they were thrown back. At latest reports the line was being strongly held.

In their attack south of the Somme upon Marcellave the Germans pushed southward from Cerisy and then gradually swung westward until Marcellave was occupied.

All told, while the intense fighting of yesterday and last night along the extended battle front gave the Germans some further gains south of the Somme and a slight advance east and southeast of Arras, along the greater part of the line the assaulting enemy troops were hurled back with heavy losses.

LONDON WAR OFFICE.

(Associated Press Telegram) London, March 25.—On the Somme the British have maintained their positions and gained ground in places by successful counter-attacks the war office announces.

After holding their line all day in the face of repeated assaults by numerically superior enemy forces the British retired a short distance from their advanced positions at some points.

The Germans again suffered exceedingly heavy losses. The British took prisoners.

The statement follows:
"Further strong attacks were made by the enemy yesterday afternoon and evening at several points along the battle front. North of the Somme our troops have maintained their positions and have gained ground in places by successful counter-attacks. A number of prisoners and machine guns were captured by us in this fighting."

"The enemy again suffered exceedingly heavy casualties. His frequent attacks which were pressed with great determination throughout the day, gained only our outpost lines, after several hours of severe hand-to-hand fighting. His reserves were then sent forward against our battle positions and were everywhere thrown back with great loss. Our machine gun, artillery and rifle fire did great execution upon his ranks. "South of the Somme also heavy and continuous fighting took place until late in the evening. Our troops, after maintaining their line all day in the face of repeated assaults by superior enemy forces have withdrawn a short distance from their advanced position."

The gigantic conflict over the ground between the Scarpe and Oise rivers has entered into a new phase. Repulsed in their efforts to break through in the center, the Germans have turned their attention to the wings of the salient in the allied lines but heavy fighting continues along most of the fifty mile front.

On the northern flank which has been extended slightly across the Scarpe, Field Marshal Haig, although giving some ground, has repulsed attack after attack and has held most of his positions intact, especially between Boisleux and Albert. On the southern flank the German gains around Mont Didier have been offset by a French offensive movement south of Noyon and the repulse of heavy enemy attacks along the Oise.

Attention is divided between the German attack along the Scarpe toward Arras and the probability that the French movement in the south is the beginning of a counter offensive on a large scale. The wings of the German salient were its weak points and when the allied troops checked the onrush and held it to small gains at great cost, as they have done for two days, the enemy had to change his tactics.

Arras is one of the strongest points in the British line and is guarded on the north by Vimy ridge and on the south by Wailly ridge while there are strong hill positions to the east. From these positions the British artillery could bombardment the rear of the German lines toward the Somme and prevent the Germans from widening the salient toward the north, while at the same time giving the British a point from which to launch a counter-attack. The German attack along the Scarpe may mean either a feint to draw their attention, an attempt to take the high ground around Arras or an effort to offset a British counter move toward Cambrai. Whatever its purpose the attack continues in strength with the British withstanding the enemy efforts gallantly.

French troops since their entrance into the battle last Saturday have made a courageous defense but none was more so than that of Mont Didier. Driven from the town and some distance westward by overwhelming numbers, the French counter-attacks, and captured and held three towns west of Mont Didier. Meanwhile, another French force struck the German line south of Noyon a hard blow and pushed it back along a front of six miles for a distance of more than one mile. This gain not only menaces the southern leg of the salient but also the German gains around Mont Didier where the enemy has driven a small and precarious wedge.

NOTED GERMAN CLUB FORCED TO CLOSE BY FEDERAL OFFICERS

New York, March 25.—The Deutscher Verein of this city, sometimes called the German club, has gone out of business. The directors voted at a meeting a few evenings ago that the club had "outlived its usefulness." It was announced today that action was taken before the Federal authorities raided the club on Tuesday evening, but it was admitted that "probably no one will believe that." At any rate, the club is now the domicile of two secret service men who are going over a mass of papers seized in the raid.

It is a matter of record that many of the club's members are now in Germany, where they have been interned as dangerous enemy aliens, and still others have passed through the Federal courts and have been sentenced to Atlanta.

Not all the members of the Deutscher Verein were of the rabid pro-German agitator variety, according to Federal officials. But the records show that among them, in its more prosperous days, were Count von Bernstorff, Capt. Boy-Ed and Capt. von Papen, all of whom gained notoriety through their efforts to stir up trouble for the United States while here ostensibly as representatives of a friendly power.

Another prominent member is Carl Bueenz, convicted in a pro-German bomb conspiracy and sentenced to 18 months at Atlanta. Herr Bueenz is about 70 years old. When he was sentenced to Atlanta prominent physicians attested that if he were moved from his quarters at the Deutscher Verein he surely would die. The government officials listened, and when the club decided to go out of business Carl Bueenz was still in his room there.

Carl Schurz, Jr., son of Gen. Carl Schurz, who fled from Germany in 1848, because he wouldn't stand for the oppressive methods of the German government has been president of the club for several years.

SAMMIES ARE ANXIOUS TO ENTER THE FIGHT

From the American lines the patrol members were seen to force their way through the enemy wire and, one by one disappear into the German front trench. During the next four hours the men in the trenches waited anxiously, hearing nothing from the patrol, who during that time were inspecting six hundred yards of the German trenches.

Prepared for instant battle the six Americans made their way from one trench section to another going into each dugout with the muzzles of their pistol rifles, preceding them, and traveled 300 yards.

Returning to the point from which they had started on this inspection they searched the trenches 300 yards in the other direction. While four hours may seem a long time for this work, it must be kept in mind that every bend and every dugout may contain an overwhelming enemy group and there was no assurance that the Germans had not discovered what the Americans were doing and that they had not concealed men in places, prepared to meet the invaders. It was noon when first the head of an American was observed above the enemy parapet. The watchers in the American lines breathed easier but at this moment the Germans discovered the patrol and rifle bullets began to smack against the trench sides and bottom.

Discovered, the six Americans lost no time in moving out. Unscathed they returned to our lines, bringing all the information they had sought.

At the other end of our lines during the night American patrols sought to go through the enemy wire. They penetrated the first belt successfully but when they reached the second, a sergeant, who is from Texas, put his hand on a wire and received an electric shock and was burned.

This attracted the attention of an enemy sentry, who fired a flare, forcing the Americans to drop to the ground and they crawled hurriedly back to their own lines as the flare died away.

Four prisoners were captured by the Americans on the front north-west of Toul some time during last night or early this morning, according to reports filtering back from the line. It is not known whether the prisoners were engaged in an attempt to raid the American positions or whether they were brought in by an American raiding party.

STEEL MEN MUST SUPPLY DEFICIT OF 50,000 TONS.

Philadelphia, March 25.—Steel mills were notified today by Francis T. Bowles, assistant general manager of the Emergency Fleet Corporation, that they must make up a 50,000-ton shortage of steel at the Hog Island shipyard during April.

Mr. Bowles also announced that the fifth keel was laid today, and that he had requested the War Department to send 350 regular troops to aid in guarding the plant.

"I WOULD NOT BE ALIVE TODAY BUT FOR NERV-WORTH"

Remarkable Signed Statement Recently Made by Mrs. S. F. Parker.

This striking endorsement given to the Nerv-Worth druggist at Washington, Pa., carries a most valuable message to ailing folks:

The E. C. Myers Drug Store—For at least eight years I have suffered with nervousness to such an extent that I could not digest my food. Terrible trouble with my stomach. Gas would form and I would bloat badly. The gas pressure interfered with heart action and caused it to flutter and produced a smothering sensation. I was very weak and could hardly do my housework. I saw Nerv-Worth advertised in the paper and heard others saying how greatly they had been benefited by its use and I procured a bottle from you and after using it I commenced to improve and am now a WELL WOMAN AGAIN. All the troubles mentioned are gone. I surely recommend Nerv-Worth as I believe I would not be alive today had I not used it.

MILK PRODUCTION.

An interesting comparison of the different dairy breeds is made in Farmer's Bulletin 393, of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The averages given per cow per year for the different breeds are as follows:

Ayrshires, 9,555 pounds of milk, 377 pounds of butter fat.

Brown Swiss, 10,868 pounds milk, 433 pounds fat.

Guernseys, 8,934 pounds milk, 466 pounds fat.

Holsteins, 14,622 pounds milk, 590 pounds fat.

Jerseys, 7,792 pounds milk, 417 pounds fat.

These averages are taken from the production of cows that had completed a year's test for the official registry of the breed in each case. Unfortunately, the vital questions of feed consumed and cost of feeds are not given, so we cannot tell which breed is most economical for the farm dairyman to keep.—Farm Life.

Please Stay.

IF YOU WOULD BE RIGHT TURN CLOCK FORWARD

In order to avoid confusion the people of Newark are asked to turn their clocks forward one hour when they retire Saturday night, for officially the time changes at 2:30 o'clock Sunday morning, and the country at large will observe the change of time Sunday morning.

By turning the clock forward an hour when you retire you will merely be falling in line with the progress of time, and all industries, churches and business will observe the same hours, only on the new time.

The ministers of the various churches stated this morning that their service hours would be the same as in the past, only in reality it will be an hour earlier. As an example in churches where the services have been held at 10 o'clock, they will still be held at 10 o'clock by the clock, after it has been turned forward an hour.

The large industries, the Wehrle company, the A. H. Heisey company and the American Bottle company and others will all observe the new ruling. The American Bottle company has three shifts and the changes have been made at 6, 2 and 10 o'clock. These same hours will be used after the clocks have been turned forward and will be observed by the men working Sunday. The Wehrle company does not work Sunday, but they start the new order on Monday. The A. H. Heisey company will start the observance of the ruling on Sunday.

Wilson Hawkins of the Public schools announces that school will begin at 8:30 by the new time, and that the same hours will be observed throughout the day.

At St. Francis de Sales church the services will be at the same hours on the old time, the change not taking place until the following Sunday. That will make services, in reality at 8 and 11 o'clock, if the clock has been turned forward an hour, but at 7 and 10 o'clock if it has not been turned forward.

The Baltimore & Ohio railroad has issued a bulletin ordering all clocks, watches, and timepieces to be advanced one hour at 2 a. m., Sunday morning. Trains will be operated according to the schedule, excepting where through trains leave the starting points prior to 2 a. m., Sunday morning, and whose schedule extend over the 2 a. m. period automatically become one hour late, and will continue so until their destinations have been reached. Connections will be protected where possible.

BRING STRAY DOGS TO THE POUND IN REAR OF CO. JAIL

The dog kennel in the rear of the county jail will be completed by Monday and all dogs without tags, caught loose will be seized and dealt with according to law. These dogs will be held for four days and a notice will be posted in the courthouse, giving a description of the dog in order that the owner may be given an opportunity to reclaim it. If this is not done within the time stated the dog will be killed in some humane manner.

Sheriff Charles H. Swank will pay five cents a head to all school boys, who will bring dogs to the pound, found without the licenses. The sheriff issues a warning to the boys that if any are caught who have removed the tags from any dogs in order to get the money offered them, they will be dealt with severely. These dogs will be taken to the pound in the rear of the county jail and turned over to Deputy Sheriff Charles Mercer, who will be in charge of the kennels.

Dr. Hazlett preached the sermon of the evening. His subject was "Preparing for a Rainy Day," and he made a most forceful talk.

This afternoon was given up to the "Old Folks" service, autos being provided to convey them to and from the church.

This evening will be "Young People's Night and Family Night" when the Boosters will again appear. A special program of music will be furnished.

CAN SECURE LAND FOR GARDENS FROM THE COMMISSIONERS

The county commissioners still have a number of good plots in the old canal bed for war gardens and anyone desiring to use some of this land may have it by calling at the office of the commissioners in the courthouse. The commissioners want it strictly understood that these plots are being allotted to people found worthy and the produce raised on the land is for home consumption only and not for profit. In case there is a surplus of the produce this surplus, of course, will be sold but the consent of the commissioners must first be secured.

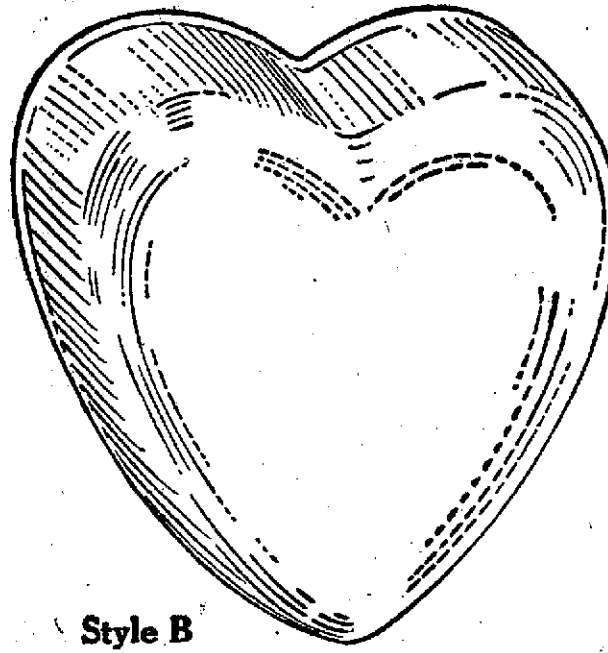

No large plots are given to any one person but the allotments are in accordance to the number of persons in the families of the people asking for the land.

Here is an opportunity for the people of Newark and Licking county to not only help themselves but also their government in carrying out the plan for a greater food production for 1918.

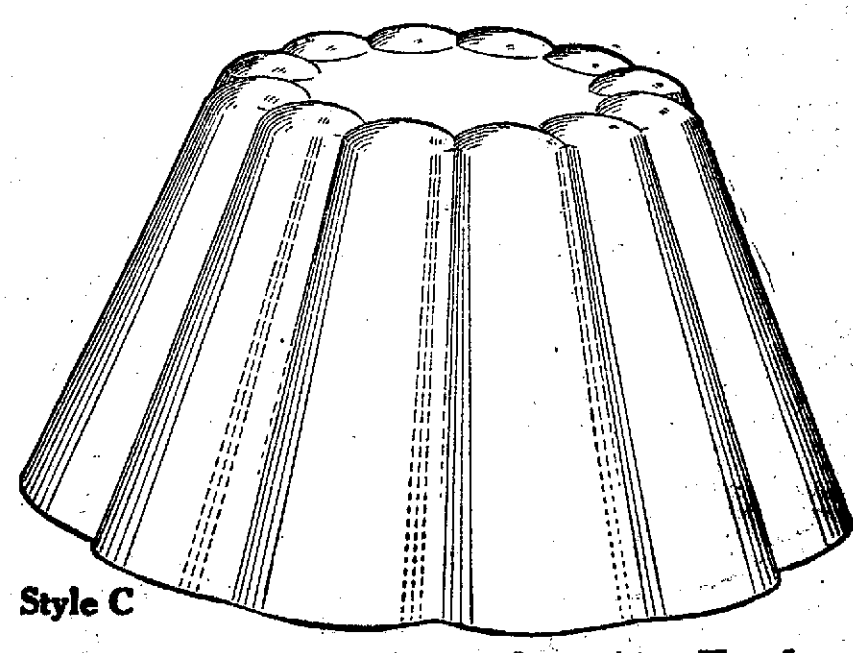

WOMEN'S COUNCIL OF DEFENSE TO MEET TUESDAY

There will be a meeting on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Taylor Hall of all the township chairmen and their committees of the Women's Council of Defense. Important matters are to be considered and a large representation from each township is requested. All who are interested are invited to attend by Mrs. E. T. Johnson, County Chairman.

Your Last Chance

To Get These Jiffy-Jell Molds as a Gift

We repeat this offer because many housewives found their grocers out of Jiffy-Jell. The demand has been overwhelming. Now grocers in general are well stocked, and we offer this final chance.

We want every home to know Jiffy-Jell. And we want every user to serve it in the most inviting way.

Jiffy-Jell is the new-day quick gelatine dessert. It is the latest creation of Otis E. Glidden, the greatest of gelatine experts. It is made in the model food plant of America. It is made with Waukesha gelatine—a superlative grade which costs to produce twice as much as the common.

Amazing Fruit Flavors

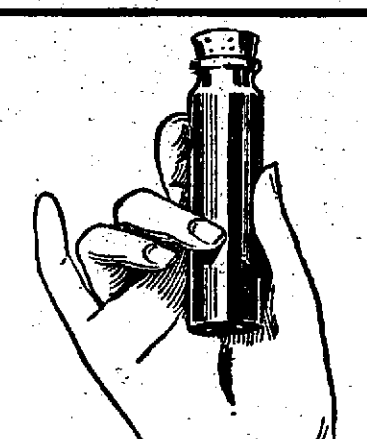

But the greatest advantage in Jiffy-Jell lies in the wonderful flavors. Each fruit flavor is made from the fruit itself. Not one is artificial. All are highly concentrated. So every Jiffy-Jell dessert and salad has a wealth of fresh-fruit flavor.

Pineapple Flavor for Salads or Dessert Jells

Then the flavors come sealed in glass vials. They are not mixed with the gelatine, as in old-style desserts.

The flavors are liquid, and they come in bottles—one in every package. So they keep their freshness until used.

A sealed bottle of liquid fruit flavor is in each Jiffy-Jell package.

All fruit flavors are made direct from the fresh, ripe fruit itself.

You add the flavor when the jell has partly cooled. The flavor is not scalded in making Jiffy-Jell, as it was in old-style desserts.

There are many fruit flavors, so you have a wide choice. All are rich flavors—all are sealed in vials. They make a Jiffy-Jell dessert taste like a crushed-fruit dainty. There is also Mint flavor for garnish jell, with a wealth of fresh mint flavor. There is Lime flavor—made from lime fruit. It makes an ideal salad jell, tart, zesty and green. There are new fruit flavors—like Loganberry—never used before.

Our Offer Is This

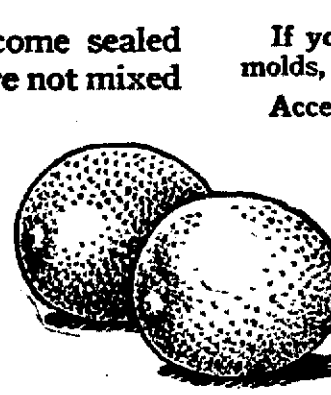

Our object is to let you know the delights of Jiffy-Jell. It will be a revelation. So we ask you to buy two packages from your grocer. Try two different flavors.

Then send us this coupon. If you want the three individual molds or one pint mold, send only 10c to pay cost of mailing.

GUARANTEED CIRCULATION.

The circulation of the Newark Advocate has been audited by the Audit Bureau of Circulations, the recognized authority on expert circulation examination.

BOY-POWER.

The most easily available source of new labor for the cultivation of farms and gardens is boy-power. Formerly a large part of our boys spent their vacations in idleness. The farmer's boy found plenty to do, and some few town-boys could get jobs "clerking" in stores. But the majority would spend weeks in idleness.

These are serious times. It is inappropriate for all this active young energy to be devoted to mere pleasure. Most boys would prefer to work summers. They are glad for a little independent money. The long hours of vacation used often to become boring.

Last year a big army of boys worked farming during vacation. But we did not get into the war until April 6, and two months had passed before the seriousness of it was realized. For every boy who was secured to go out on the farms last year, there should be two boys available this summer.

There ought to be an organization in every school to supply boy-help through the summer to such farmers as need it. Every boy of sufficient age should be asked to serve his country in this way. He should be made to feel that he is helping almost as much as a soldier.

The productiveness of these boys will depend a good deal on the man in control of them. It takes knack to manage boys so as to get the best results. Appeal to the spirit of competition and patriotism will accomplish more results than grinding severity. The boys should be given their off-hours for play. With tactful handling and sympathetic leadership, they can accomplish a lot and produce an enormous amount of food. The entire boy-power of the United States should be mobilized this spring in the win-the-war food campaign.

WAR GARDENS.

A report comes to The Advocate office that in some instances exorbitant prices are being asked for vacant lots which people desire to rent for war gardens. One man last night stated that he paid 50 per cent more than the lot was worth a year ago and that the owner this year demands a still further advance.

People should be willing to pay a fair price for the use of vacant lots and owners should ask no more than a fair price. The government is urging everybody who can to put in a "war garden" this year as food will be scarce and the price will be high and every encouragement possible should be given those who are willing to cultivate a garden and thus increase the food supply. Where property is held at an exorbitant figure some way should be found to compel the owner to lease it for garden purposes at the right price.

INSTRUCTION IN CIVICS.

There is an increasing desire to teach children the idea of community spirit. It is not enough for them to be able to do certain things themselves, as individuals. To accomplish the best results, they must be able to act with each other for the promotion of community interest.

A series of "Lessons on Community and National Life" for use in schools has recently been prepared by Mr. Hoover and by Commissioner of Education Claxton. It takes up such matters as wise consumption of foods and other supplies, production, the transformation of life by introduction of machinery, the functions

Literary Styles and Others.
When paper pants come in, or preferably on, we are going to have ours of government, and social, industrial,

and civic problems.

This is a combination of the studies commonly known as civics and political economy. Formerly these problems were not taken up until the college age. But now more people are seeing that these subjects come close to every person, and everyone needs to know something about them.

It is just as necessary for a girl to know how to save food in her home as to solve some tangled problem in fractions. And just as necessary for a boy to know how to improve the government of his town, as to be able to bound China and tell the rivers of that country.

Already 1,000,000 school children are studying these lessons. They are adapted to both high and grammar schools. The objection will be raised, that our school courses are so crowded that there is no room for them.

Some old-fashioned people who favor the "three R's" will call them
"frills." It is not a frill to know how to promote the advancement of Newark and of the state and nation.
It is safe to predict that in a very short time the study of such subjects will be made compulsory in all schools even if a little arithmetic and geography have to be cut out.

HOSPITAL TAG-DAY.

The annual hospital tag-day, under the auspices of the young women of the Twentieth Century club, comes tomorrow. The dozen members of the club will be assisted by other young women and also by Boy Scouts who will visit the factories.

When you are politely asked by a dainty miss tomorrow to buy a tag remember that every penny you give will go to the Newark hospital and remember, too, that the hospital needs the money. The Twentieth Century club members in the past five years have done splendid work for the hospital, their efforts being more successful each year. They hope that tomorrow's tag-day will net a handsome sum and we trust that they will not be disappointed.

WET OR DRY?

(Ohio State Journal.)
The question is soon to come up whether, considering the amount of poverty, vice, crime and ruined homes, it is best to have a sober country. That will be the leading issue in the state election this fall.
There will be an effort to cover it up and candidates will seek to stand on both sides or neither side of it, but the issue is certain to thunder along the skies from horizon to horizon. Most all the other issues will be dinky things, which the people are not going to think about much. There may be an examination of records, but that will be tame in comparison with the toss up, wet or dry. Of course, intoxicating liquors don't do all the misery and criminal business, but they do cause enough to make the issue the biggest that ever agitated the state. It doesn't seem that the proposition needs much argument, but watch it—it will be loaded to the guards.

Did You Know
That the bridge spanning the East
River at Hell Gate, between Ward's Island and Astoria, Long Island, is the longest arch in the world? The span is 1,016 feet, 10 inches, between tower faces. It is also the heaviest bridge in the world, weighing 52,- 000 pounds per lineal foot. The width of the bridge is 93 feet between railings. Construction of the arch was commenced in November, 1914, and it was opened to traffic April 1, 1917. It was designed and built by Gustav Lindenthal for the New York Connecting Railroad to connect the Pennsylvania and New York, New Haven systems, at a cost, including approaches, of $25,000,- 000.

Both Right.

Dear Aunt Caline—I wonder if Zeke ever told you about the time he met Hava Shott up in Newark that day. Zeke was walking along by the Warden Hotel when Hava came across the street in his usual condition and says to Zeke, "Is this the other side of the street?" "Why, no," says Zeke, "That's the other side over there." And then Hava says, "Well, that fool over there said this was the other side." Yours truly, Cousin Jane.

BOYS WANT WORK.

One paragraph in yesterday's war savings committee notes was especially interesting in that it presented the fact that scores of Newark high school boys are anxious to put in their after-school hours and Saturdays at good practical work in order to make their war savings accounts grow and thus help Uncle
Sam as well as themselves.

In these days when all are urged to conserve and save and increase production of essentials, and at this time when the boys are entering the army and navy in large numbers there should be employment for many of these young men who want to work. They are willing to receive their pay in Thrift and War Savings stamps. Those who can give employment to young men of high school age in the evenings or Saturdays are invited to communicate with Principal O. J. Barnes of the Newark high school.

IN WISCONSIN.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)
The balance of power in Tuesday's senatorial election in Wisconsin is in the hands of the La Follette Republicans. If they swing to the Socialist Berger, he is likely to be elected.
If they go to the Republican nominee,
Representative Lenroot, the Republican will in all probability win.

Wisconsin is seething with the bitterness of the fight. In Milwaukee, the home of Berger and the hotbed of Socialist dissatisfaction, the feeling of loyalists of all parties against those who denounce the American government and its cause in the war is particularly strong. The vice chairman of the Milwaukee county council of defense is quoted as declaring that "there is but one ultimate answer to them (the principles of Berger and his associates) and the answer is the firing squad and the stone wall. The minority in this state, if necessary, will meet Socialist ballots with bullets."

Thompson, the La Follette Republican candidate who was defeated by Lenroot in the primary, has declared for his successful opponent. If his declaration is sincere and is backed by the active support of the La Follette element in the party, it may be expected to give the Republican candidate strength likely to make him winner on Tuesday.

Voters of Wisconsin go to the polls with the eyes of the country upon them. The result of the election will give joy either in Cleveland and every other American city of in Berlin. It is for Wisconsin to say which.

Of course we may be wrong about it,
but personally we never could

DEMOCRACY AFTER THE WAR.

(New York World.)

This is the test which President Wilson, in an admirable letter to the Democrats of New Jersey, says will have to be applied to every political measure after the close of the war.

"Is it just? Is it for the benefit of the average man without influence or privilege? Does it embody in real fact the highest conception of social justice and of right living, without respect of person or class or particular interest?"

Theoretically, American democracy has embraced this high ideal from the first. Except in the cases of slavery, no party or leader has held otherwise, and yet, under just such professions, many wrongs have been committed. The vision of President Wilson is made the more real, however, because he perceives, as others do not, that from the mighty upheavals resulting from the present conflict between the forces of progress and reaction great changes must come.

These changes may not be so much in the principles of government, industry and society as we know them as in their application and acceptance. War and its awful sacrifices will hardly bring us new truths, but they may easily make truth more agreeable; they may easily break down prejudices and remove ignorances heretofore invincible; and, as we trust they are to destroy imperial tyranny, they may easily mitigate private greed and injustice—even class hatreds.

It is an enticing program that the President has written. Democracy to its last syllable, it is as much an admonition to the predatory poor as to the predatory rich.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The new Studebaker cars in three models embody our long experience together with the latest and greatest achievements of some of the ablest and most experienced engineers and production experts in the automobile industry. These cars are new throughout, with improved motors, intermediate transmission, new axles, bodies, tops, windshields, radiators, hoods, fenders, etc. They are beautiful in design, thoroughly modern and mechanically right.

Before finally approving these cars for production, experimental models of each car were driven thousands of miles under the severest conditions, through the mountains and country roads of the United States and Canada.
And finally, to make assurance doubly sure they were driven for days and weeks over the Chicago Speedway.
Never were we better satisfied with the performance of any cars in power, speed, endurance and riding comfort.
These cars are the masterpieces of the Studebaker organization.

VERDICT IN THE MERRIAM CASE IS EXPECTED TODAY

Zanesville, O., March 29.—In her own behalf, Mrs. Mayme McCloy Merriam, on her witness stand Thursday afternoon, in her trial to answer for the tragic death of her husband, sobbed out the story of her married life of abuse and ill-treatment, culminating in the tragedy of January 23, when the fatal shot ended it all and brought her before the bar of justice to answer to a charge of manslaughter.

She was the last witness called by the defense and after the arguments of counsel this morning, her fate will be left with the jury. It is generally predicted that an acquittal will be reported in short order.

TO MANAGE CAMPAIGN FOR ZANESVILLE MAN

Zanesville, O., March 29.—Judge H. C. Smith, who Tuesday, announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for secretary of state, will lose no time in getting a virile campaign under way. Last night he announced that Capt. John P. Maynard of Columbus, but formerly of Washington, Courthouse, had been appointed as his campaign manager and will, the fore part of next week, open headquarters in the Hartman theater building, Columbus.

Capt. Maynard formerly held the position of clerk of the house of representatives and is one of the most widely and favorably known men in Ohio political circles.

FARMER DROWNS IN SHALLOW CREEK

Woodfield, O., March 29.—The body of Oliver Gatten, prominent farmer of near Woodfield, was found in less than two feet of water in Crane Nest creek here yesterday. He left town yesterday evening on foot, and it is presumed that he fainted, fell into the creek and drowned. He leaves a wife and several children.

OHIO ELKS AT COLUMBUS.
Washington C. H., March 29.—The annual meeting of the Ohio Elks' Association will be held in Columbus September 17, 18 and 19, it was announced today by President Jess W. Smith. A patriotic celebration is planned. Ten thousand members are expected to attend.

CAMP SHERMAN NOTES

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Ohio, March 29.—Amish Mennonites and other "conscientious objectors" are to be put to work whether or no, before long, it was stated today. The Mennonites and others who have persistently declined to serve in any capacity since beginning inducted into the service of the national army will be put to work in some non-combatant branch of the service, failing which they will be subject to court-martial, as a result of the provisions of the bill signed last week by President Wilson.

Officers here declared they would lose no time in putting the measure into effect when they receive official notification that they are to act accordingly. They expressed themselves as being well satisfied with the situation as it now stands, for the "conscientious objectors" have been a thorn in the side of Camp Sherman officialdom ever since last fall.

Last week all of the colony here were transferred from barracks at the base hospital where they have been quartered during the winter months, to quarters on the east side of the hill overlooking the camp back of the base hospital. Officers declined to predict what effect the new law will have on the attitude of the "objectors" here, but they are glad to have a definite means of securing final action on the men.

No effort has been made to force the men to serve against their will.
Various propositions have been made to give them work of an admittedly non-combatant sort, but all to no avail. They would not work. They declined to receive any pay from the government. They have spent much of their time in holding religious services. It was stated today that some of the men have been working on nearby farms during the past few weeks.

About 125 of the "objectors" have been gathered in the colony here,
most of them of the religious variety.
Officers tried the experiment of removing the ring leaders from their midst, but this also was without avail. Some of the men have been willing to work part of the time. Service in the quartermaster corps or similar branches of the service will be offered the men. If they fail to comply with the orders given them they will fare the same as other selects, officers say.

Certificates of graduation are being made out for candidates in the third officers training camp here.
No prediction could be secured from officers as to the number of men who would be graduated, but it was stated that all of the men who were admitted to the camp from civil life have been assigned to various organizations here, so that if they are not given their commissions at once they will report to these units at the conclusion of the school. They have been carried as unattached hitherto.

Instructors are grading papers of the candidates who took the examinations covering all of the work given them in their training. It was stated that, while the grades made in the examination will count heavily, other phases of the work will have a greater weight in determining the recommendations as to final disposition of each man.

Seven organizations were reported quarantined today, four for scarlet fever and the remainder for measles.
Those isolated for scarlet fever were:
The headquarters company 322nd
infantry; Company G, 329th infantry;
Headquarters company 103rd
Telegraph Battalion and the Headquarters 324th Heavy Field artillery.
Those quarantined for measles were:
Battery F, 323rd Artillery; Company
I, 332nd Infantry and Company I, 330th Infantry. Company C, 308th Field Signal Battalion was reported released from quarantine.

KEEPING SOLDIERS STRONG

Early in the world-war cod liver oil was selected to fortify the health of soldiers against the rigors and exposure of camp life and to help build up enduring strength.

SCOTT'S IS THE EMULSION

that actually guarantees the pure quality of Norwegian Cod Liver Oil which is refined in our own American laboratories.

It is skillfully emulsified to promote prompt assimilation which is always difficult with the raw oil.

Scott's Emulsion is famous for putting power in the blood to thwart colds, grippe, pneumonia and lung trouble. It is free from alcohol or opiates.

MADE-IN-AMERICA TANGLEFOOT

COLUMBUS, O.—(Special.)—Ohio people have been "mussing up" the Kaiser's feet with their purchase of more than $6,500,000 worth of the government's War Savings and Thrift Stamps. Before the close of 1915 he'll be pretty thoroughly enmeshed with the $100,000,000 worth of stamps to be distributed in this state.

"Let us give our men in the military not only a chance, but the best chance," the Ohio War Savings committee is asking of Ohioans in the campaign for the sale of War Savings and Thrift Stamps. "Let us see to it that they have in abundance the best means of protection that American ingenuity can devise—the best equipment, better than the German's; the best machine guns, better than the Germans', and more of them; the best artillery, better than the Germans', and more of it. They will have it, and only if, through thrift, the people of this country place the means with which to purchase it at the disposal of the government."

Dollars can work for victory only in so far as they are converted into labor and materials. On this basis is the Ohio War Savings campaign being conducted. "All the dollars in the world could not buy victory," the state committee declares.

ADVICE TO GARDENERS

As the time draws near when the plants must be set out in the open ground, they must be "hardened off" to withstand the new conditions to which they will be subjected, such as hot sunshine, drying winds, lack of moisture and lower temperatures. This hardening off process is brought about gradually by lowering the temperature from day to day, giving plenty of air and using water sparingly. In the frames, this is brought about by opening the sash a little more each day until they may be taken off entirely during the day and closed late in the evening, then, finally, no protection is given day or night. Tomatoes, egg-plants and peppers must be handled very carefully. If you have no frames, you can get the same results by placing the pots or boxes in a sunny window and opening the window a little farther each day; then moving them to a sheltered corner of the porch and finally, out into the open.

Some gardeners shift their plants several times before they are set out in the open ground. It is claimed that by so doing, the plants are sturdier and have a better root system and that there is less trouble in fighting weeds, insects and disease. When the final transplanting has been done to the paper pots or berry boxes, the plants can be set out in the open ground, even if in blossom, without disturbing the roots or checking their growth in any way. Wet the plant well 6 or 8 hours beforehand; dig the hole for it, tear the pot carefully away and gently slide into its new home, firming the ground well around it. Transplanting to the open ground is best done on a cloudy day, just before a rain or after the heat of the day, say 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Before March gets away from you, be sure to finish that plan for your garden which you started in January. Don't wait till planting time and grab your seeds and hoe and plant in a haphazard way, and then think it is funny that you happened to plant the lettuce on top of the beans and wonder why all that space has nothing in it. You would not expect to run your business successfully in that way, how can you expect more of a garden? Think it out. Here are a few points that may help:

Choose the warmest and driest place in the garden for the very early crops. The wet spots will dry out later.

Don't plant all the fall things where they will shade the lower-growing ones. Put them at the north end of the garden.

Plan to economize space in your garden by interplanting and succession of crops.

Don't try to get in crops that require too much space.

Keep a record of the cost of your garden and of what you get out of it; what things did best, what ones you would like more of and what ones you would cut out next year. Educate yourself by your own experience.

If you have any spare time left, dig the weeds out of the lawn and lay grass seed in the bare spots. Lay a path, and plant a small lawn, and it is all right to remain, spruce rapidly. March is the time for pruning trees, shrubs and bushes, but if you are not familiar with that sort of work, you would better consult your efforts to merely trimming out the dead wood. That is the only safe plan for a beginner.

You never can tell. There is generally more disorder in a church than in the choir world indicate.

AMUSEMENTS

AUDITORIUM.

"The Son of Democracy," the real art in photography, will show the episode of the Paramount picture, which, the great actor, Benjamin Chapin, is seen in the role of Abraham Lincoln, a part he has portrayed all over the country for years. These two reel series, each week a different one, each complete stories are especially timely and full of good Americanism. Remember they are not war pictures. They are most of war pictures—fine, clean, inspiring pictures that appeal to the children as well as grown-ups. They have been recommended by Josephus Daniels, secretary of navy; Mrs. W. Grant Brown, president of the New York State Federation of Women's Clubs, and hundreds of other persons whose judgment you would value. For today and tomorrow, together with the wonderful Paramount feature, "His Mother's Boy," in which Charles Ray is seen, the fourth of the series, "My First Jury," is seen. In this you see a bully comedy drama, full of years and laughs. The pathos surrounding the boy Abe, the reputation of the charge that he stole a farmer's sickle, form contrasts to a charming and amusing trial as Abe defends, before a most peculiar jury, a funny pickeninnery who stole a white chicken. The showings tomorrow are continuous, starting at 1 p. m.

"His Mother's Boy." This being in theatricals is a bad one. It was considered one of the worst in the year, Holy Week, when attractions, theaters, etc., all close up, or the theater's playing pictures of vaudeville, put in inferior companies. The Auditorium has kept up its great standard and in the program today and tomorrow a most expensive show is seen in Charles Ray, in the Paramount-Intec, "His Mother's Boy." The Chapin-Paramount, "The Son of Democracy," and the Hearst-Pathe News, in "His Mother's Boy" Ray as Matthew Denton, has a to Texas, work in the oil fields himself, and eventually pay off the investors.

"Six Shooter Andy."

When a man with a good heart and a quick trigger finger gets into bad company, either one or the other dies. In the latest William Fox photoplay, "Six Shooter Andy," which will be shown at the Auditorium theatre next Sunday, the situation is shown where an honest man gets into very bad company. It is the mining town of Banquo, Nev., during the gold rush days. A sixty years ago, Andy Crawford (Tom Mix) hopes, like others, to gain wealth by digging for gold. Tragedy meets him at the threshold of the town. He finds a prairie schooner containing eight small children, all in tears. On the ground is the father, killed by a bullet of one of the town's gang. This feature, together with a Mack Sennett-Paramount comedy, will be an attraction Sunday. The incomparable orchestra as usual will have a pleasing program and a special number will be a showing of the evolution of that popular ditty "Dixie." Leader Frank Reynolds has arranged this number in a most pleasing way and it is sure to delight our hearers.

Remaking of a Nation.

Every feature of soldier making at Camp Sherman is included in "The Remaking of a Nation" picture which will be shown April 1, 2, 3 at the Auditorium.

Major General Glenn conceived the idea as a means of impressing upon civilians the magnitude and the seriousness of America's war preparations. The transformation of a selective service man into a seasoned soldier is picture in detail. You must see it to appreciate it.

Auditorium Notes.

Virginia Lee Corbin, Violet Dandridge, George Stone, Raymond Lee and others of the Fox kids are seen in Tom Mix's great Western play Sunday, "Six Shooter Andy." The Sennett-Paramount

Sunday. Once upon a time this old world was very much concerned with the problem of how many angels could stand on the point of a needle. Several centuries later serious minded people were engrossed in an equally important discussion about whether or not it is wise to keep a secret from an audience. The answer to the latter question has come at last in "Flirting With Fate," and answer is "Take the audience into your confidence to the limit." The idea in this film is to make the audience part of the picture, and consequently the plot is talked over with them in a series of amusing subtitles. In fact, these subtitles flash upon the screen the very remarks the spectators are about to make themselves.

When Fairbanks, in the character of Augie Answorth, an artist who is down in his luck, keeps getting one misfortune after another and the audience has been shown one more impending that he is not aware of, the subtitle reads: "Clear away the clouds, yet to come," and when that piece of misfortune—rejection by the girl of his heart—does come to pass in Augie's life the following subtitle makes its appearance: "Never mind, all the young men in the audience know how you are suffering."

BOOKS FOR SOLDIERS.

The American Library Association is soliciting books for our soldiers. C. B. Galbreath, state librarian and director of the movement in Ohio, has issued this announcement:

The campaign for donations of books for our soldiers is in progress this week. The libraries of the state are actively taking the lead in this work.

"General Pershing and other high officers are making a plea for more books. Money contributed in the campaign of last September and October has been used for the establishment of a library service in all the camps and cantonments of this country. Books were donated and purchased. This service has been very popular among the soldiers and the demand for additional books has grown far beyond anticipation."

"Some thought that our soldiers would not care for books, that they would not have time to read them. Experience shows that in the periods of relaxation from his arduous duties the average soldier yearns for something to read. He is eagerly reading the books already provided for him and calling for more."

"An appeal is therefore made to all of the citizens of Ohio who have good books that they can spare to donate the same for the use of our soldiers. If there is a public library in your community, leave the book there. If you do not have a public library leave it with the superintendent of your schools and he will see that it reaches its destination."

"This appeal is for books. Magazines are not needed now as the present supply of these is adequate."

role that is the best of his picture comedy, "The Athletic Girls," will also be seen.

Matthew Denton is a product of a New England village. His father was a prominent business man, who, during the later period of his life, had encouraged a number of his fellow-townsmen to invest in the Centipede company, owners of Texas oil property.

Matthew lives with his widowed mother. She shows a wealth of motherly care on him, and refuses to permit him to mingle with the other lads of the town, with the result that he grows up weak on iron strings, and is known as "his mother's boy."

The purchasers of the Centipede stock receive notice that there will be no dividend, that the stock gives every indication of becoming worthless because of a loss in the wells' producing capacity. A delegation of townspeople calling on Matthew's mother, denounce her late husband for having induced them to purchase the stock. Matthew overhears the tirade, comes to his mother's assistance, and declares that in the future he shall be "as-somebody."

None shall lose a penny through this investment, he asserts, for he will go

HERE ARE MARY, DOUG AND CHARLIE MAPPING OUT THEIR CAMPAIGNS FOR THE THIRD LIBERTY LOAN

Douglas Fairbanks, Mary Pickford and Charlie Chaplin, the most divine of screen stars, planning their third Liberty loan campaigns.

Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo has assigned a territory to each of the movie stars above and they are all going to boost the third Liberty loan with all their might and main. If Doug Fairbanks approached you in his hearty manner, or Mary Pickford smiled at you the least bit, or Charlie Chaplin turned on you his charming grin and you refused to buy a bond you would be a hopeless affair. All of them helped in the campaigns before.

AMERICANS WANT TO GET INTO THICK OF THE FIGHTING

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Paris, March 20.—American soldiers wounded along the Chemin-des-Dames are being removed from American Red Cross hospitals in Paris to make room for British soldiers injured too seriously to be moved a great distance.

Twenty-seven Americans suffering from gas poisoning have reached Paris on their way to a large base hospital behind the front. They are all New Englanders.

One of the number, a private of Irish-extraction, whose home is in Bridgeport, Conn., is waiting for the time when he can get into action again. This is why:

"I was gassed on March 17, just when I expected leave for the St. Patrick's day celebration behind the lines. The worst of it was, it was yellow gas, which added insult to injury.

"I believe I will be all right within a few days and God help Fritz when I get back and get a crack at him with my machine gun."

All of the 27 will recover.

FOUR LOSE LIVES IN BOARDING HOUSE FIRE EARLY TODAY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, March 20.—Three persons were burned to death, one was killed by a fall, and two were seriously injured in a fire in a theatrical boarding house here early today.

The identified dead are: Catherine Harrington and Edward Swanson. Two bodies of unidentified women are at a morgue.

The cause of the fire is unknown and fire officials are investigating reports that it was of incendiary origin. There have been six fires at the house since the first of the year, according to the fire marshal.

PLYMOUTH SERVICES.

"The Cross" will be the subject of Chaplain F. E. Holloway's concluding evening address this evening at 7:30 o'clock, at Plymouth Congregational church. Bible students from all over the city have attended these evening meetings and have expressed hearty appreciation of Chaplain Holloway's method of exposition of the scriptures. All are invited to come this evening and bring their Bibles.

RETURNS FROM INDIANA.

Miss Edith McGay, art instructor in the public schools has returned from Liberty, Ind., where she was called by the death of her mother and the serious illness of her brother.

A SORRY MESS. THEY ALL CONFESS.

The man who reads the daily news is apt to form decided views from tales so clear and graphic. He reads that farms and shops and mines have clogged the helpless railroad lines and gummed them up with traffic. He reads that Mr. McAdoo, to help the needed shipments through, decreed a vast embargo. With such a mess and trains all late some roads are turning down new freight in cargo after cargo. Munition stuff and food and coal are being carried to their goal but nothing else is taken. Just try to ship a case of shoes and count the hours of sleep you lose and how your nerves are shaken. Or try to send your chairs and bed to some embargoed shipping shed and see if they will let you. A dose of grief and pain and woe, as if you'd gone and stumped your toe, is all that it will get you. The roads are in a sorry mess and even railroad men confess they don't know what they're doing. But this we know, and can't forget, the end is not in sight as yet and trouble still is brewing. We surely know that vast supplies of new made goods and merchandise, beyond all calculation, are piling up throughout the land, to meet the nation's wide demand, and wait for transportation. This means that every one of us must help relieve the tangled mess wherever we are able. The one best chance for you and me to ease this mighty strain will be to grow things for our table. If we will raise the stuff we eat we'll help the railroad world to meet the troubles which beset it. The roads won't have to drag around this stuff we take from out the ground; we'll just step out and get it. Write the National War Garden Commission, Washington, D. C. for its complete manual on home gardening. It's free for 2-cent stamp for postage.

WILL CELEBRATE COMMENCEMENT OF CHANGE IN TIME

New York, March 20.—Community chorus singing, band concerts and patriotic addresses will mark the turning forward of clocks an hour in New York next Sunday morning, it was announced today by the daylight saving committee.

The main celebration will be held at Madison Square, commencing at 11 o'clock, Saturday night. The singing will be led by 100 negro soldiers from Camp Upton. After midnight there will be Easter carols and patriotic songs.

At 2 o'clock—the hour set for the change in time throughout the nation—Marcus M. Marks, formerly president of Manhattan borough, and president of the National Daylight Savings Association, will press an electric button which automatically will move the illuminated hands of the great clock on the Metropolitan tower to 3 o'clock.

DENY BOLSHIEVIKI HAVE RETAKEN CITY

Amsterdam, March 20.—Denial that the Bolsheviki have retaken the Black Sea port of Odessa is made officially in Vienna. It is said the city is still occupied by the Austro-Germans.

Official announcement was made by the Russian government, Wednesday, that Odessa had been recaptured by the Bolsheviki after a desperate battle for three days. Odessa is the most important Russian port on the Black Sea.

SOLDIERS' LETTERS

Editor of the Advocate:
I wish to thank you, and through your paper, the people of Licking county, for the bronze identification medal which I received while at Ft. Omaha, Neb.

On account of moving to this camp I have not had an opportunity of writing to you before this, but now I manage to write several letters, when not engaged in digging out stumps or shoveling stone ballast, which seems to be the main occupation here. Ha! Ha! That is some job for a soldier, isn't it? But we are in the army now, and everything goes, if it will help to win the war.

We expect to go across in a short time and everyone is anxious and willing to go.

So, again thanking you for the medal, and wishing you continued success, I extend to you and the citizens of "Old Licking" the typical soldiers farewells. "Good-by, Good Luck, God Bless You." I am, Yours truly,

ON NEWARK HOSPITAL TAG DAY,
NEXT SATURDAY, MARCH 30TH

This club, numbering twelve young women as members, has done effective work for the Hospital since 1913, last year raising $420 on Tag Day. The club hopes to meet with greater success on March 30. Through money raised by this little club the Hospital baby ward has been furnished, the domestic science department, the laboratory and nurses' home equipped in part. Every dollar raised on Tag Day, March 30, goes to the Hospital. The public is cordially asked to respond when asked to buy Hospital Tags on Saturday.

Ohio Women, Prepare!

Thousands of women in Ohio have overcome their sufferings, and have been cured of woman's ills by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This temperance medicine, though started nearly half a century ago, sells most widely to-day. It can now be had in tablet form as well as liquid, and every woman who suffers from backache, headache, nervousness, should take this "Prescription" of Dr. Pierce's. It is prepared from nature's roots and herbs and does not contain a particle of alcohol or any narcotic. It's not a secret prescription for its ingredients are printed on wrapper. Send 10c. for trial package to Dr. V. M. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

COLUMBUS, OHIO.—"I can recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription also the 'Golden Medical Discovery' as the best medicines I've ever used for myself and in my practice as a nurse. I am the mother of four healthy children whose health I attribute to my use of Doctor Pierce's Remedies. I gladly recommend them to all suffering women."—MRS. NELLIE BURNETTE, 82 S. Gift Street.

CLEVELAND, OHIO.—"Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription helped me so much during expectancy. I was so nauseated that I couldn't eat and I became very weak and miserable. Then my sister advised me to take 'Favorite Prescription,' and the first few doses made me feel like a different woman. I was so strong and well all the time and my baby was a healthy 10½-pound boy. This medicine has been used by other members of my family and with just as splendid results. We are always enthusiastic in recommending Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to expectant mothers."—MRS. M. McFADDEN, 3272 E. 93rd Street.

U. S. FOOD ADMINISTRATION RULINGS

Of Interest to Millers, Feed Dealers, Jobbers and Farmers.

By FRED C. CROXTON, Federal Food Administrator for Ohio.

With the new rules announcing margins—that may be charged by brokers, commission agents and jobbers, the wheat mill feed situation is now much clearer. A direct ratio between the cost price of wheat and the price of feed is now established, and by the announcement of margins through the usual channels of trade, the ratio is now established from the mill to the consumer. The rules as they now stand are as follows:

The bulk price of bran per ton of 2000 pounds, at the mill, in car lots, shall in no case exceed 33% of the average cost of one ton of wheat at mill where ground. This cost shall be the average cost, as shown by the previous month records of mill, and shall include the 1% administration fee paid by mills on all wheat ground. The different prices for the other wheat mill feeds, bulk carlots at mill, are as follows:

Shorts or standard middlings, $2.00 per ton above bran.

Mixed feeds, $4.00 per ton above bran.

Flour middlings, $9.00 per ton above bran.

Red dog, $15.00 per ton above bran.

For less than carlots, bulk, at mill, 50c per ton additional may be added.

Shorts or standard middlings and Red Dog are spring wheat products, not generally offered by Ohio millers. Mixed feed here means the bran and middlings, run of mill, without separation. Practically all Ohio middlings are classed as flour middlings.

Jobbers' Margins on Wheat Mill Feeds:

The supplementary rules recently issued by the United States Food Administration fixed the maximum allowable handling margins, per ton, carlot basis, as follows:

Brokerage 25

Commissions 50

Jobbers:—

(a) Cash, sight or demand draft from mill or in transit 1.00

(b) Cash, on arrival draft terms from mill or in transit 1.50

(c) Cash, sight or demand draft, ex-jobbers warehouse 2.50

(d) Cash, on arrival draft terms ex-jobbers' warehouse 2.50

Ohio War Board Says

There is opportunity in almost every community for a man who will equip himself and do custom spraying for his neighbors.

Nearly every farm has a small orchard, many of which are neglected and uncared for.

The owners would be glad to pay some one a good profitable price to spray the trees for them.

The trees are capable of bearing large quantities of food, valuable at the present time.

This represents a chance for some one to do some needed work at a good profit.

Appearances are deceptive. Judging from what he eats the average small boy must be much larger than he looks from the outside.

NOTHING LIKE PHOSPHATE
TO INCREASE STRENGTH, VIGOR AND NERVE FORCE

ORDINARY BITRO-PHOSPHATE
WILL DOUBLE THE STRENGTH
OF WEAK, DELICATE, NERVOUS PEOPLE IN TWO WEEKS' TIME IN MANY INSTANCES.

Weak nerves quickly reduce the strong and robust to an extremely pitiable condition and rob men and women of all the joys of life. Slowly and stealthily the health is destroyed, the poor sufferers only realizing the magnitude of his ailment when faulty memory, sleeplessness, indecision, lack of energy or other unmistakable symptoms indicate weak nerves. Then it is a serious and dangerous mistake to resort to the use of so-called tonics, alcohol or drug stimulants.

Weak and exhausted nerves need food and nourishment—not stimulants that lash them into temporary activity. The food and nourishment advised by present day physicians is just one 5-grain tablet of pure bitro-phosphate taken during or immediately after each meal. Simple advice, but its soundness has been proven over and over again. Moreover the genuine standard bitro-phosphate is inexpensive and is sold by most of all good druggists under a binding guarantee of satisfaction or money back.

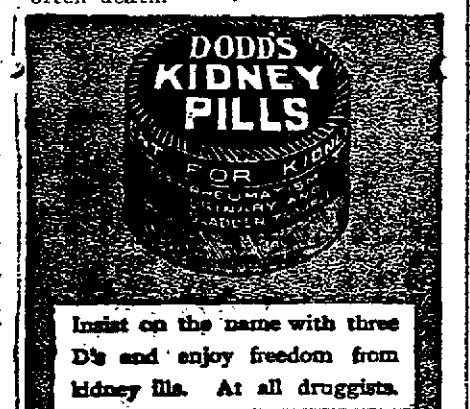

Dodd's Kidney Pills Relieve After 20 Years' Suffering

Mrs. James Dotz of Zanesville, O., is one of the thousands of people who in the past 40 years have been relieved of the agonies of kidney trouble by taking Dodd's Kidney Pills. Only recently we received an unsolicited letter from Mrs. Dotz, which reads as follows:

"For twenty long years I suffered with heart disease and bladder inflammation. I had frequent chills, cramps in the muscles and suffered from headache and backache. I was often dizzy and had flashes of light and floating specks before my eyes. I could get no help until I started to take Dodd's Kidney Pills. Then I began to improve right away and six boxes of these Pills completed the cure.

"My little boy also had kidney trouble and was cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills. I hope thousands of others, suffering as I have, hear of your wonderful remedy.

"Mighty few people realize in time that kidney trouble is making its advances upon their health. They put off treatment—then say, 'Oh, I'll be all right in a day or two.' And the malady tightens its grip. Result: Bright's disease, hospital treatment, doctor's bills—often death.

Alkali in Soap Bad For the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepped shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulsumed coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsumed coconut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

URGES MEN AND WOMEN TO REDUCE DANGEROUS VARICOSE VEINS

A Few Minutes Each Day With Simple Home Treatment Will Help Wonderfully.

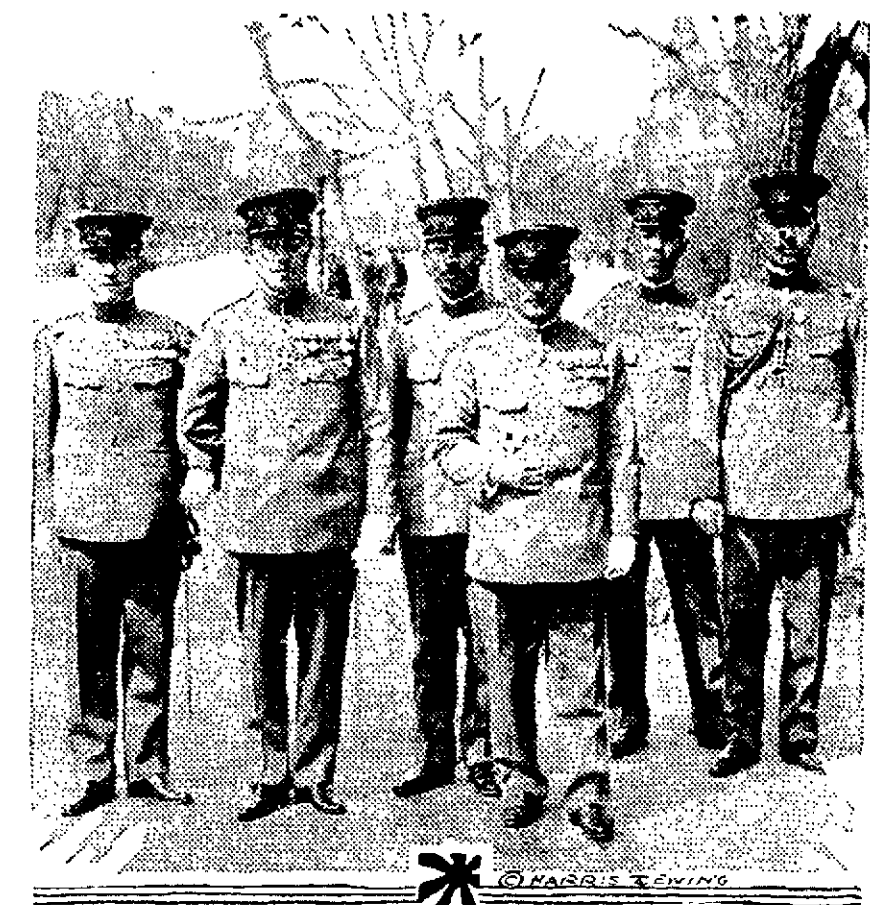

People who have swollen veins or bunches should not wait until they reach the bursting point, which means much suffering and loss of time, but should at once secure from any reliable druggist a two-ounce original bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil (full strength).

By using this powerful and sure, yet harmless treatment, improvement is noticed in a few days and by its regular use swollen veins will return to their normal size and sufferer will cease to worry.

Gently rub it on the enlarged veins—always upward. This method acts the quickest results and Emerald Oil is guaranteed to succeed. Get it at Evans Drug Store.—Adv.

JAPANESE MISSION IS HERE TO STUDY AMERICAN WAR INDUSTRIES

The new Jap mission recently arrived at Washington.

Japan has sent a special mission to this country to study war industries in the United States. Among them are some of the best known of Japan's technical men. Mizumachi and Miki Motegi, military cloth inspector.

BRIG. GEN. HOLBROOK ENDORSES PICTURE OF CAMP SHERMAN

Chairman E. C. Wright, of the War Work Committee has received the following letter from Brigadier General W. A. Holbrook, commanding officer at Camp Sherman, in reference to "The Re-Making of a Nation," the moving picture of the daily life of our boys at the camp. This picture will be shown at the Auditorium theatre April 1st, 2nd and 3rd.

Dear Sir:

I have been informed by the officers in charge of our moving picture "The Re-Making of a Nation" that you will handle this moving picture in Newark, O.

I desire to express to you our interest in this work and to assure you of my personal appreciation of your efforts to make this picture a success. We have endeavored to have a maximum attendance in all localities where this picture is shown and I sincerely trust that you will be able to accomplish this result in Newark.

The raising of money in connection with the film, while of importance, is not our chief consideration. This picture was procured for the purchase of presenting to the families of Ohio the daily life, training and education of their sons and brothers at Camp Sherman. We would greatly prefer, if such were possible, to have every family interested in Camp Sherman come to this cantonment and acquaint themselves with conditions as they really exist. Since this is impossible for only a small minority, we have attempted to reverse the situation and bring Camp Sherman into the homes of Ohio.

A spirit of thorough understanding and of co-operation between soldiers at this camp and their friends and relatives is necessary in producing a spirit of contentment among the men. This contentment and actual support by the people of Ohio is absolutely essential to military efficiency and for this reason we desire to show the picture to the greatest number of people in this state.

This film has been shown in Washington before members of Congress, the Senate and the War Department. Each of these bodies has heartily endorsed this undertaking. Secretary of War Newton D. Baker, Assistant Secretary of War Benedict Crowell, Mr. George Creel, Chairman of the Committee on Public Information, and other prominent men connected with the United States Government have expressed their appreciation and hearty support of this picture and the object for which it is being shown.

The money derived from this undertaking will be devoted to the needs of soldiers and their families from Ohio and western Pennsylvania from where this Division has drawn drafted men.

With best wishes to you in your efforts towards making this production a success in Newark, I am,

Yours very truly,

W. A. HOLBROOK,
Brig. Gen. Commanding.

TUSCANIA SURVIVOR WRITES TO MOTHER

The following letter from Charles Rinehart, who was aboard the Tuscania when it was sunk off the Irish coast by a German submarine, has been received by his mother:

American Expeditionary Force, March 11, 1918.—Dear Folks at Home: This is the first opportunity I have had to write you for some time, but there is very little news, at least very little that I am allowed to write about. Am getting along fine and am in the best of health. I have gained quite a little since I have been over on this side of the water.

The weather is quite warm and I have not seen any snow since I have been here. The scenery is beautiful and beyond description and I hope to return some day and tell you all about it, and the wonderful experience I have had up to this time.

I suppose of course you have read the accounts of the sinking of the Tuscania. Well as you know I was aboard that ship at the time and made a landing safe somewhere on the coast of Ireland. It was a great experience for all the boys when we all got together again. You should have seen us; you know we did not save any of our clothes and we were all dressed differently in clothes that were given us by kind people of the Irish coast towns. I did not even save a coat but was surely a happy boy when I stepped on land once again, after having been on water for two long weeks.

The people of this part of the world sure have been good to us who were saved from the Tuscania and the boys will never forget them. We have had various entertainments given for our special benefit and our only regret is that our comrades are not all here when roll call comes.

Tonight is lunch night for a bunch of us fellows that have been close friends since we have been here, and we are all set for some real fried spuds and canned peas. One night we had real friend eggs with fried potatoes, so you see I am not doing bad. I have not received any mail since I have been here but hope to be in a location soon where I can write to my friends in the good old United States. Hope that I will have a large collection of your letters awaiting me.

At the party tonight we will have two cans of Velvet U. S. A. smoking tobacco and everyone surely enjoys their pipes. As you well know we all enjoy smoking around home.

We heard a lecture today by an army officer explaining about the great war now raging, and it was truly interesting. The speaker had had twenty-five years' experience with the British army. As it is our lunch time will bring this to a close, trusting that you are all well and hoping to hear from you all soon. Your loving son, Charlie, Via Am. Ex. Force, Co. D, 6th Bat., 20th Eng.

Mitchell, Ind.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me so much during the time I was looking forward to the coming of my little one that I am recommending it to other expectant mothers. Before taking it, sometimes I suffered with neuralgia so badly that I thought I could not live, but after taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was entirely relieved of neuralgia, I had gained in strength and was able to go around and do all my housework. SERIOUSLY NOW!

I'm Looking You Right In The Face!

I Want You To Loan Me Some Money!

I could tax you and get the money to conduct this war for you and yours. But instead of taking your money away from you and giving you nothing in return, as my enemy is doing, I choose to Ask You for a Temporary Loan.

I'm asking your sons, brothers and relatives to fight for me across the water and at the time I wrote this, forty-five of them had died for me and two hundred and fifty were in the hospitals; not counting the 300 splendid boys who went to a watery grave when my enemy in a cowardly manner sank the Tuscania. One of these boys is worth more to me than all your money. It's cheerful patriotism to loan your money to me to earn the right to stay at home.

For $82.80 this month invested in War Savings Stamps I'll repay you in January, 1923, $100.00 in gold, which is 4.27% interest. If in the meanwhile you need the money I give you the right to go to any of my postoffices and get your money back with interest to the date of redemption. I guarantee the value and the interest of these Stamps.

If you can't spare $82.80 all at once then I'll take a loan of $4.14, the price of one War Savings Stamp, and you can buy the others and paste them on a War Savings Certificate (furnished free) as fast as your savings permit. Remember the price of War Savings Stamps advances to $4.15 April 1st. Better exchange your Thrift Stamps for War Savings Stamps tomorrow. It will cost you more on Monday.

YOUR SICK CHILD IS CONSTIPATED! LOOK AT TONGUE

Hurry, Mother! Remove poisons from little stomach, liver, bowels.

Give "California Syrup of Figs" if cross, bilious or feverish.

No matter what ails your child, a gentle thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given. If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that the little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently move out of the little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Advertisement.

POTATO TURNOVERS.

Boil and put through the ricer enough potatoes to measure a pint. Add one well-beaten egg, two table-spoons of flour or enough to "bind" the potato and season with salt. Turn on floured board, roll out and cut in circles the size of a saucer. Place on each a large spoonful of dry hash seasoned with onions and parsley, chopped fine. This hash should be dry or bound together with thickening. Double over and pinch together like a turnover. Place on oiled baking sheet and brown in hot oven. Serve with a thickened sauce made from the gravy in which the meat was cooked or with a tomato sauce.

Sidestepping.

Milady's Boudoir

Evening Makeup.

The art of evening makeup is no hit or miss affair. It requires the utmost cleverness and sophistication to so simulate nature that no one will be the wiser. Yet any woman can touch up her face so she will look ten years younger under the electric light, if she but be careful. Once yield to haste and carelessness, however, and the secret is out.

The evening makeup may be more elaborate than the one for the day-lit hours. First bathe the face in lukewarm water to which a pinch of borax has been added, to soften the skin. Go over the face and neck with cold cream and wipe it all off with a soft cloth. Now apply a liquid rouge and remember that all faces do not require rouge in the same places. Rouge, high on the cheeks and near the nose, makes the face youthful. Much rouge on the outer sides of the cheeks gives a hard, sophisticated, middle aged look.

The plumper the face the less rouge should be used on the edges and the more toward the center. Put a little rouge on the chin, less if it is prominent, more if it is receding. The lobes should be touched with the rouge, for a dead white ear is never youthful.

Now go over the face and neck with liquid white powder, blending the edges softly and not forgetting the upper eyelid and the hollow under the eyebrow. Spread on the liquid powder with a piece of absorbent cotton. Next take a stick of flesh colored grease paint and, very delicately, go over the hollows under the eyes, rubbing the grease in well with the finger tips.

Last comes the eyebrows and the lips. Apply the lip stick very delicately to the lips, a little more generously to the lower lip, which should look full and youthful. The eyebrows, if thick, need only to be brushed out and shaped. If they may be lightly penciled with black and brown powder, well mixed.

Hooverizing. That small word "or" is featured upon the bills of fare!

SOCIETY EDITOR, AUTO 'PHONE 2812.

The members of the Progressive Embroidery club were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. H. E. Collins in Western avenue on Thursday afternoon.

The afternoon was pleasantly spent in needlework, followed by a contest in which Mrs. Lee Bratton was the successful contestant.

The hostess served a most delicious lunch to the members of the club. The club then adjourned to meet in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Walter Treese in Locust street on April 4th.

Thursday being the anniversary of the birthday of Mr. Harry T. Waite, Oak street, a surprise was arranged for him by Mr. Edward Paul.

On arrival of the party at the house, a Masonic thirty-second degree pin was presented Mr. Waite, the presentation speech being made by Mr. C. S. Dayton.

Cards were played until 10 o'clock when the guests were invited to the dining-room where an elegant feast had been prepared by Mrs. T. Paige, assisted by Mrs. Fin and daughter, Helen, and Miss Alta Martin. Cards were again played until a late hour, when the guests departed, wishing Mr. Waite many more happy birthday anniversaries.

Those who enjoyed Mr. Waite's hospitality were: Messrs. C. S. Dayton, Clyde Hoover, Clarence Martin, Thomas Lamb, L. J. Frenier, Edward Paul, Arthur Coffman, Clarence Dille, E. S. Franklin, David Murphy, John Finnes, Clarence Johnson, C. E. Wheeler, T. Paige, M. Jones and H. D. Jones.

THE COURTS

Alimony Case.

In common pleas court on Friday the court heard the evidence in the case of George R. Swartz vs. Wm. Swartz. Plaintiff was granted a decree of divorce in the Probate Court some months since upon her petition. The defendant filed an answer in the case, claiming alimony, and which was denied by the court. An appeal was then taken by the defendant to the court of common pleas upon the refusal of the Probate Court to allow him alimony. After hearing the evidence, Judge Fulton, in the common pleas court, took the motion for alimony under advisement.

Viewing Ditches and Bridges.

The county commissioners left for a trip of inspection this morning to view ditches and bridges in Washington and Harrison townships.

Files Cross-Petition.

An answer and cross-petition was filed in the case of Harry B. Grout vs. Charles Kerr today in common pleas court. The plaintiff filed his petition on February 28, 1918, as a result of a collision between him and the defendant. On October 1, 1917, the former was riding a motorcycle and the latter driving his automobile on the Newark-Zanesville pike. The plaintiff asked $4395.75 judgment.

In his answer the defendant admits that he was traveling on the pike on the date stated, but denies every other allegation. The defendant further says that the plaintiff was driving his motorcycle at the rate of 60 miles per hour, and that if injured, received the same on account of his own negligence; that at the rate he was driving he lost control of the motorcycle and ran into the defendant's automobile. As a result of the collision the machine was damaged to the extent of $1000, the defendant's knee was injured in the sum of $1000. The defendant asks that he be awarded damages against the plaintiff in the sum of $1050, with interest from October 1, 1917.

Taken Under Advisement.

The case of the State of Ohio vs. Joe Samolio, arrested on a charge of slander, was heard this morning by Judge Robbins Hunter in probate court, and the case was submitted to the court under advisement.

Demand Jury Trial.

The assault and battery case of the State of Ohio vs. John E. Armstrong was submitted to probate court this morning and the defendant demanded trial by jury. The court set the date of the trial for April 12.

When a fellow tells a girl he is not worthy of her she should take him at his word, and not look for proof.

NEWS BRIEFS

Two Fire Alarms.

Two fire alarms early Thursday evening called out the local departments. At 4:10 a call from North Newark brought the departments to the north end of Stevens street, where a pile of rubbish was burning. At 4:45 the response to a call from 395 Washington street, where a spark had ignited a chimney and set fire to the roof. The house was occupied by a colored family, who, when asked who the owner of the house might be, said: "I doan 'membra' his name, but he live up-town in a yaller house." The damage was small.

Five Cases in Court.

Five cases of intoxication in the mayor's court this morning drew fines of $5 and costs each.

Mrs. Arthur Davis, North Fourth street, was called to Akron today by the serious illness of her brother-in-law, John Blair, who is seriously ill at the Akron hospital suffering with pneumonia.

Underwent Operation.

Mrs. Edward Miller, North Fourth street, who recently underwent an operation at Mt. Carmel, Columbus, is getting along nicely.

HEADING OFF THE CHICK SCOURGE

(By G. E. Conkey.)

While it is hard to give any exact percentage of the chicks lost by the average small poultry raiser, it is safe to say that on the average fully twenty-five per cent of the hatch are lost. There are poultrymen who lose hardly any chicks and then again there are poultrymen who lose half the hatch and more.

Of these heavy losses, the larger percentage is due to some form of bowel trouble. Sometimes this is caused by faulty incubation which means weak chicks with digestive organs that cannot properly take care of the food. Then again, in brooding the chicks may be poorly handled becoming overheated or chilled, or if they are not watched they will crowd together. Any of these conditions will bring on bowel trouble.

The worst of it, or, if feeding, especially on mixtures that are not well balanced, results in a tendency toward bowel trouble. Do not give foods that are too rich or too highly concentrated for such foods—among which we may mention cottonseed meal, linseed oil meal or gluten—if continued for any considerable time are sure to cause trouble.

Do not use moist food carelessly or it will become sour before the chicks can clean it up. This season particularly a word of caution is advisable because of the fact that an imperfectly ripened grain that will be on the market. The feeding of such grains will be sure to cause cholera and other bowel trouble among the grown fowls, and more especially so among the chicks with their delicate digestive organs.

The foregoing are some of the causes leading to what are commonly described as "bowel troubles." They are troubles that may be remedied with proper treatment but they are more readily prevented by correcting the wrong conditions that have been pointed out in incubating, brooding and feeding.

Ordinary cases of bowel trouble should not be confused with a case of genuine White Diarrhea, the deadly chick scourge which carries off so large a proportion of every year's hatch. It is hard to tell the difference between an ordinary bowel trouble case and a case of White Diarrhea so far as external appearances are concerned. The only way to really tell the difference is to make a post-mortem examination. Such examinations are worthwhile, for if you find the case one of ordinary bowel trouble it need cause no alarm, but if the case is White Diarrhea, you want to know it at once. White Diarrhea is extremely fatal and very contagious to later hatches and once started may mean terrific loss and perhaps absolute failure for the unfortunate poultryman.

The subject of White Diarrhea is so important that we shall discuss it thoroughly later, but this now let us urge you to use every possible precaution to prevent bowel trouble among your chicks. We must hatch all the chicks we can this year and after we have gone to the trouble of spending time and money hatching them, it is up to us to raise them and not lose any through bowel trouble.

Our Boys and Girls

There are parents and many of them so bent on liberating their children, as they call it, that they go to extremes in the matter. "I would rather have my children honest than well married," says one of these. "If my little boy dislikes a guest in my house," says another mother, "he is at perfect liberty to show that dislike."

This has always seemed to me a strange and narrow conception of truth, namely, that truth consists in showing and expressing one's feelings and one's likings and dislikes. Surely this is to take a very small and egotistical view of truth. One might as well say that beauty consists of what we think is beautiful in a particular instance, or that justice is of necessity what we think is just in a certain circumstance.

Surely a real love of truth is not a mere love of our particular truth. Surely to express our opinions and feelings in a perfectly downright manner, whether it happens to be just or kind or appropriate or just that we should do so or not. Surely a real love of truth is not so petty or so personal a thing as that. Surely to really love truth is rather to recognize and respect all truth wherever it may be found, and not only that which lies in the little circle of our personal likes and dislikes.

GRANVILLE

(Special to The Advocate.)

Granville, O., March 29.—The men's war-work committee of Granville township have formulated plans for a patriotic mass meeting next Friday afternoon and evening, beginning with patriotic afternoon programs in all the schools of the township, and closing with a rousing rally in the Granville opera-house, whose management have offered the house and employees free. At 7 p. m. scenes from the trenches will be shown on the screen, and at 8 o'clock there will be a patriotic address by Dr. S. S. Palmer of Columbus. A number of the county committee also will be present to explain the plans for the county war-chest campaign. Stirring music will enliven the meeting. Everything free; everybody invited.

Dr. J. E. Conant has been remarkably successful in his recent evangelistic campaign in Hamilton and Toronto, Canada.

On Monday afternoon, April 1, at 8 o'clock, will occur the annual meeting of the Reading Room Association in the reading room of the public library. Those interested in the work of the association are invited to be present.

Mrs. Mabel Moore, a teacher in the Covington, Ky., schools, is spending the Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Moore, South Mulberry street.

Gifts to the public library during the month have been: Sixty-six books from Mrs. C. B. White; one from Mrs. Daguer; two from Mrs. R. S. Colwell; 10 from Mrs. B. F. Griffith, and one from Mrs. Susan T. Bawden. A fine set of pictures of American authors was presented by Miss Eva Robinson.

Many Granville people are interested in the Johnstown Red Cross sale, to be held in that city today and tomorrow.

In the report of the A. F. F. W. work for this week, grateful mention was made of another gift from Charles Duerr, the florist, who refused to accept pay for the beautiful bouquets ordered from him by the A. F. F. W. for presentation to Misses Grace Chamberlain and Faye Hulshizer at their recent play, "The Fiag of Victory." This presentation was a slight acknowledgement of the benefit conferred upon the organization, as well as of appreciation for artistic achievement by the author and company.

Mrs. E. J. Dorsey has just returned from a 10-day sojourn at Magnetic Springs.

Dr. T. A. Lewis is ready to receive information as to all vacant lots available for war gardens, as well as those plots which may be cultivated on shares; also, information as to available gardeners who are willing to work, but have no ground. This committee among other activities will act as a clearing-house for such information.

Dr. C. J. Lovelace attended the banquet of the Licking County Medical Association last night, held in the McDaniel's banquet room, Newark. He speaks in warm appreciation of the address given by Dr. B. H. Kirkendall of Columbus, on the "Radium Treatment of Cancer."

At a patriotic meeting in Texarkana, Tex., recently held with four-minute speeches, Mrs. Eugenia Finley, formerly of the domestic science department, made a talk which was awarded first place on the program.

Every Day Etiquette

"I wish to entertain some friends who are unmarried. Is it necessary to have a chaperon?" asked the young bachelor.

"You should certainly ask some married woman to act as a chaperon. It is well to ask her husband also. You should also escort the chaperon to the table," replied his sister.

BURNING OF THE OLD COURTHOUSE FORTY YEARS AGO

Just forty years ago today the Licking county court house was destroyed by fire, and the accompanying picture of the building in flames was made from a photograph, now in the possession of Frank Trost of West Main street, who was serving as a volunteer fireman at the time. It shows the building in flames and the smoke rolling out of the openings.

MAYOR ASKS FOR HALF HOLIDAY ON SOUSA'S VISIT

On April 10th, Newark is to be visited by a section of Sousa's Band from the Great Lakes Naval Training Station in the interest of Uncle Sam's third Liberty Loan. Very much desiring that Newark shall do honors to these visitors as they deserve, I am issuing a proclamation to the effect that April 10th be declared a half-holiday for all kinds of business, or at least closed from 12:30 to 2:30 p. m. I would also suggest that the Board of Education dismiss all schools for the afternoon of April 10th, as the demonstration takes place at the Auditorium at 12:50.

B. & O. EMPLOYEES WAR MEETING THIS EVENING

Arrangements have been completed by the local officers of the Baltimore and Ohio road for the employees War Meeting which will be held at Taylor Hall, Y. M. C. A., at 8 o'clock tonight. Every effort has been made to make the evening a pleasant one and all employees of the company have been urged to attend. An excellent musical program has been arranged in addition to the other features of the meeting.

"THRIFT" WINDOW WORTH SEEING FUCHS BROS. STORE

Fuchs Brothers, north side jewelers, have a unique and very interesting window on display devoted entirely to the war savings stamps. The background shows three large posters advertising "Thrift" and the window is trimmed with all sorts of display cards, label buttons, war savings stamps, newspaper matrices and so forth every article in the display bearing directly upon the war savings campaign. In the center is the word "Help" spelled with "B. T. S." (Buy Thrift Stamps) buttons the period consisting of a white button upon which is printed the fact that Fuchs Brothers have war savings stamps for sale. On either side of the window is an attractive Easter card appropriately lettered and carrying a Thrift stamp. The posters are held in place with red, white and blue stickers. "My Soldiers" with a child's prayer and concluding with the suggestion to buy war savings stamps. Mr. Fuchs has bought a large number of the war savings stamps for himself and he has others for sale. In passing along the north side be sure to see the Fuchs Brothers window. The "Thrift" was made by Mr. Eugene McCarthy.

LET'S FOOL THE KAISER!

How much patriotism have you? An ounce? A pound? Well, if you aren't sure, you can easily measure your patriotism by the amount of what you are saving and as long as they know that their wives and children at home are not starving, they will have the strength and courage to fight.

Failure to have enough bread caused Russia's breakdown. The same calamity nearly caused Italy's collapse and the Kaiser is counting on his great ally, Starvation, to break down the Entente Powers. We must keep Europe supplied with bread. When we defeat Starvation, we defeat the Kaiser.

But there may be some who think that the little sacrifice in wheat that the Food Administration asks each one of us to make is too diminutive to matter.

But when the Kaiser heard that the Americans were voluntarily adopting individual and daily food conservation that they might give the Allies the food they needed he immediately spent large sums of money in paying for secret service men and for propaganda that would frustrate such an attempt on the part of the American people.

If the Kaiser thought it was worth all this to prevent us from adopting food conservation does it not seem that it is worth our time and energies to accomplish this?

Suppose, for instance, your family saved a loaf of bread a week. Multiply this by the number of families on your street. Multiply this by the number of families on all the streets in your town or city. Multiply this by the number of families on all the streets in all the towns and cities in America.

Now you know why the Kaiser tried in every way to prevent us from adopting these little daily and individual food conservation measures in order to feed our associates in this war.

Remember, while we are saving a loaf, the Kaiser is failing. They are continuing to fail. But the Kaiser is comforting himself with the thought, oh, well, the American people will easily become discouraged and careless in making these little daily sacrifices. If a big sacrifice were demanded of them, the whole nation would rise in a moment of strength to the task. But these little, individual sacrifices all seem too petty to them in comparison.

Shall we let this prediction come true? Let's fool the Kaiser!

How much patriotism have you? Only an ounce? Make it a pound.

PERFECT PLANS FOR ORGANIZATION OF BASEBALL LEAGUE

(Associated Press Telegram)

New York, March 29.—Promoters of the new International Baseball League met here today to perfect plans and select a desirable circuit from the number of applicants for admission. Organizations will be formally completed, it is expected, next Wednesday.

The decision to organize the new league was made yesterday after the International league had voted by six to two to disband. The applications for membership are from the old organization and the New York State League as follows: Baltimore, Toronto, Rochester, Jersey City, Newark, Buffalo, Syracuse, Birmingham, Wilkes Barre, Scranton and Elmira.

AGAINST SUPERIOR FORCES PLUCKY FRENCH HARASS HUNS WITH GRENADES

Two nery French poilus holding back a German patrol. Fighting for every inch of ground and at all times of the day and night the French in their sectors have made the German advances most costly. The French have been holding firmly north of the Oise and west of Noyon.

POTATO PIE.

To one quart of hot boiled potatoes add enough hot milk to moisten. Mash in kettle in which they were boiled, season with salt and butter, and beat with a fork until light. Stir in one-half cup of minced meat. Have ready four hard-boiled eggs and one-half cup of stock or gravy. Arrange potatoes and sliced eggs in dish in alternate layers with potatoes forming top and bottom layers. Moisten with the gravy. Brush over the top with milk or egg and brown in hot oven.

This dish can be arranged in three layers with the middle layer made of some kind of meat-hash bound together with egg or thickened gravy.

ARREST OF MUCK APPROVED.
Boston, March 29.—The Department of Justice at Washington, in a telegram to United States Marshal John J. Mitchell, approved the course of Federal officials here in arresting Dr. Karl Muck, conductor of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, on the ground that his presence at large was a danger to the peace and safety of the country. The marshal refused to say what disposition would be made of the case. Dr. Muck is being held in the Cambridge jail as an enemy alien.

Dangerously Ill.
Word has been received that Lee Fallon is dangerously ill of pneumonia at Parkersburg, W. Va. Mr.
Fallon recently enlisted here in the navy and went to Parkersburg to be examined. This morning word was received that he was dangerously ill, and his mother, Mrs. John Fallon,
Eighth street, left for Parkersburg.

Everybody Goodnatured Then.
Will you give me some advice?
asked the youthful candidate.
Why, certainly, my boy, answer the veteran campaigner. The first thing for you to learn is that you can't feel the public pulse by listening to what men say just after the drinks and cigars have been passed around.—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Nothing Means More To The Right Furnishings Of Your Room Than The Window Hangings

Now that the time has come to beautify the home for the summer, our curtain department has provided a varied and extremely attractive selection of curtains ready to hang or materials for the woman who can deftly make them herself.

WE HOPE YOU'LL FIND TIME TO SEE OUR SPECIAL CURTAIN DISPLAY

This week, in our window are some beautiful imported curtains in Renaissance, Point Lace, Linen Antiques, Cluny, Lever Nets, Imported Madras. Then after you have admired the window showing, just step inside to the drapery department, and see the many beautiful effects on display there. Our drapery department is aglow with new things to make home attractive for the summer, and we know you will enjoy seeing the fine curtains now on display.

W. H. Mazy Company

AN OPPORTUNITY

The opportunity to make many good mortgage loans is at hand. They are needed by good thrifty people, many of them farmers. We feel sure help rendered the farmer will aid the country at this time, as increased production of farm products is a necessity.

With this in view, THE CENTERBURG BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION COMPANY has decided to issue FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS more of Paid-up Stock.

The Paid-up Stock of this company, during the past twenty-two years never earned less than six per cent interest per annum. This is payable on January first and July first of each year.

This stock will be issued in shares of One Hundred Dollars each. You can secure one or more shares, up to Five Thousand Dollars.

This stock can also be surrendered for face value at any time and on July first and January first of each year without the loss of interest.

The laws of Ohio provide that a building and loan company may cash its own stock, which makes this an investment that you can expect six per cent interest on, and yet, have your money available at your wish.

No preferences will be given, but stock will be issued in order in which applications are received.

If you have money to invest, this is worth considering as it is a choice investment and one that cannot ordinarily be secured.

Orders can be sent to the company by mail or by telephone.

This is an opportunity for the many holders of stock of this company to increase their holdings.

WAR BOOKS.

There are so fearfully many war books published it would take a fortune to buy one-half of them, so the Edmiston Book Store has picked 16 of the Leading Lights among the innumerable tales, romances and impressions written about "Over There," and is offering them in a 60c edition. Among them such treasured sellers as "First Hundred Thousand," "The Great Push," "Germany, the Next Republic," "The Soul of Germany," "Kings, Queens and Powers," "My Home in the Field of Honor," "Kitchener's Mob," etc., etc.

WELL KOWN SPRINTER DEAD.
St. Paul, Minn., March 27.—James Maybury, famous University of Wisconsin sprinter, died in a hospital here today from uraemic poisoning. He was one of the first men to cover 100 yards in 0.8 4-5, making that record in 1887. He was 42 years old and a resident of St. Cloud, Minn.

PEPPER WITH DODGERS.

Hot Springs, Ark., March 29.—Pitcher Jeff Pfeffer of the Brooklyn Dodgers has been reinstated by the national commission and will begin a monthly contract and play ball until he is called into the service. He enlisted last summer in the Naval Reserve.

DOWN AND OUT MOTHER BRACES UP. SURPRISES WHOLE FAMILY

She had worked, loved and was happy in doing for her children, and when she started to break down they were frantic, were willing to do almost anything to make her last years happy and free from worry and illness. Nothing they did seemed to help, doctors, medicines or rest gave no results.

Finally, when all were about desperate with worry a neighbor induced them to try Phosphated Iron. It had worked such wonders with her old folks. Ready to grasp at any help they got a supply and the way their mother improved from the start was almost too good to believe. It sure was a happy and reunited family and you can bet they are all boosting Phosphated Iron to the limit.

Doctors the world over will tell you that Phosphates and Iron will build up and store strength and energy against old age and nervous breakdowns. One of our leading physicians says: "The results I have obtained with Phosphated Iron have been great in cases of old people, where it was necessary to build up strength, revive bodily functions, give them life, renewed youth and health."

There must be something to it. Doctors and druggists all tell the same story of success.

Special Notice—To insure physicians and their patients getting the genuine Phosphated Iron, it is put up in capsules only. Do not allow dealers to give you pills or tablets. insist on capsules. Evans' drug store and leading drug stores everywhere.

SLOVENLY SALUTE FLAYED BY THE ARMY INSPECTORS.

Washington, March 29.—The "slovenly, indifferent salute and the lack of uniformity in dress and equipment" are two weaknesses in American soldiers training, officers of the inspector general's department and French and British advisers have informed the War Department.

Calling the attention of division commanders to this criticism, a department memorandum today said: "Commanders of all grades are hereby enjoined to make instruction in saluting a fixed part of their drills until every officer, enlisted man and organization can with certitude be pronounced proficient in salutes. This part of the soldier's training must be considered vital instead of casual. All commanders are further enjoined to rigorously suppress all slovenliness of personal dress."

SIX CLUBS WILL OPERATE ON COAST.

Seattle, Wash., March 29.—Directors of the Pacific Coast International Baseball League have decided on a six-club league this season. The organization will play a season of nearly five months. The league is composed of clubs from Seattle, Tacoma, Portland, Spokane, Vancouver, B. C. and a sixth club as yet unnamed. The season will begin April 20 and closes Sept. 15.

IS ENDEAVORING TO PROMOTE NEW LEAGUE.

Ft. Wayne, Ind., March 29.—Carl Vanover, local sportsman, has been endeavoring to promote a reincarnation of the Central League, and has had some encouragement in this city, but so far there has not been effected here any organization to hold a franchise in the old or in the new league.
